GONE, BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

As the Lakers were celebrating last summer's second consecutive NBA title, an era within the organization was quietly coming to an end. Club president Bill Sharman retired following last season, ending a relationship that began when he became head coach in 1971-72 and promptly led the club to an-NBA record 33-game winning streak, a 69-13 record, still the best in league history, and the club's first NBA title in Los Angeles. After a five-year tenure in which the club won 60 percent of its games, Sharman became General Manager and assembled the foundation for the clubs that have won five titles in this decade. The Lakers won titles with Sharman as GM in 1980 and 1982, and, following that championship, he was elevated to the position as club president. The team added titles in 1985, 1987 and last June, making him the first man in NBA history to win championship rings as a player (Boston—1957-59-60-61), coach, General Manager and President. Bill stayed in the background as the Lakers forged their recent success, due in equal parts, perhaps, to a voice problem and his reserved nature, but that did not diminish his role in that success.

JERRY BUSS

Jerry Buss purchased the Los Angeles Lakers, the Los Angeles Kings of the NHL, The Forum and a 13,000 acre Kern County ranch in June, 1979 for $67.5 million in what was then the largest sports transaction of all-time.

In the nine seasons of his ownership, a modern sports dynasty of no small proportions evolved. These Laker teams have won five world championships and reached the world championship round seven times. They have won 72 percent of their games and 22 of 26 playoff series.

A graduate of the University of Wyoming with a Bachelor's degree, Buss took his Ph.D. in Chemistry from the University of Southern California. After a brief career in the aerospace industry where he met Frank Mariani, Buss and Frank Mariani used their scientific training and facility with mathematics to launch a career in real estate.

They parlayed an original $1,000 investment in a West LA apartment building into what became a multi-hundred million dollar real estate business at its height.

However, since his emergence into major league sports, Buss' business interests have increasingly turned to sports and he and Mariani have reduced their involvement in real estate.

In 1985 Buss and Bill Daniels launched Prime Ticket Network, now one of the premier regional sports cable television networks. Buss' sports ventures include the Los Angeles Lazers of the Major Indoor Soccer League, the Los Angeles Strings of Team Tennis, Forum Championship Boxing, Inc. and Team Cup Volleyball.

Three of Buss' children are actively involved in Forum operations. Jeanie heads the tennis and volleyball operations, Jim runs the Lazers and Janie works with California Sports, Inc. management.

Buss' blue-jean lifestyle is as casual as his business operations are mathematically precise. He involves himself in both with great enthusiasm, as he does his involvement in community work. Buss devotes a large measure of his time and resources to many community serving causes. He is most diligent in his support of education and the disadvantaged young and elderly.

JERRY WEST

In Jerry West's six seasons as General Manager of the Lakers, the club has won three NBA titles, competed in the Championship Series five times and averaged more than 60 victories per season.

In spite of such continued success, the club has also undergone a subtle rebuilding process, adding three starters (James Worthy, Byron Scott and A.C. Green) over that period. From his office in The Forum, West has overseen this transitional process, which will leave the club with still only one member of the starting unit as old as 30 when the season concludes.

It is only natural that Jerry continues to be successful in The Forum offices, since he has known his share of happy times out in the building's arena. All you need to know when judging his role in the organization's history is this: since the club moved to Los Angeles in 1960 it has participated in the playoffs in all but two seasons — and those were the only two seasons (1974-75 and 1975-76) in which he was not affiliated with the club.

Jerry was born on May 28, 1938 in Cheylan, West Virginia, and first drew national attention as a high school star. As a senior at East Bank High School he led his team to the state title and became the first player in the state's history to score over 900 points in a season, averaging 32.2.

He attended the University of West Virginia, where he set 12 school records, graduated with a 24.8 scoring average and was a two-time All-America before becoming the Lakers' first pick in the 1960 college draft.

Before entering the NBA Jerry took a trip to Rome, where he served as co-captain of the gold-medal winning U.S. Olympic basketball team in 1960, a squad generally touted as the greatest in Olympic history. He was also a member of the victorious U.S. squad in the 1958 Pan American Games.

Of course, Jerry is best-known as one of the greatest players in NBA history after a 14-year career, all with the Lakers. When he retired after the 1973-74 campaign he had scored 25,194 points, the third player to reach the 25,000 mark, still the sixth-highest total in NBA history. His 27.0 scoring average is the third-highest in NBA history and he ranks among the all-time leaders in several other categories.

Jerry was the all-time NBA playoff leader in points (4,457) and assists (970) until Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Earvin Johnson, respectively, passed him in 1985 post-season play. His 29.1 scoring average in the playoffs is still the highest in NBA history and he remains the Lakers' all-time scoring leader.

Among his most memorable accomplishments were compiling a 40.6 scoring average during the 1965 playoffs and sinking a 60-foot shot to send Game 3 of the 1970 Championship Series against the New York Knicks into overtime.

Jerry was selected to the All-NBA first team 10 times, the second team twice, the All-Defensive first team four times and second team once. He was selected to play in the All-Star Game for 13 consecutive seasons and was MVP of the 1972 classic at The Forum, and NBA Playoff MVP in 1969 despite playing for the losing team.

He averaged 25.8 points for the 1971-72 Lakers, which set NBA records by winning 33 straight games and finishing 69-13 before bringing the first NBA title to Los Angeles. Jerry was elected to the Basketball Hall of Fame in 1979 and was named to the NBA's 35th Anniversary team in 1980.

Jerry retired prior to the 1974-75 season and returned to the Lakers for the 1976-77 season, replacing Bill Sharman as the club's head coach. He posted a 145-101 record and his clubs reached the playoffs in each of his three seasons at the helm. His first club finished with a 53-29 record, the best in the NBA that season, and he led the club into the playoffs after the two-year absence.

Following the 1978-79 campaign Jerry served the Lakers for three years as a special consultant, with the primary responsibility of scouting college players. Prior to the 1982-83 season he was elevated to his present position as the club's General Manager, where he oversees the day-to-day operation of the club and all player personnel decisions.

Jerry and his wife, Karen, reside in Bel Air with their nine-year-old son, Ryan and infant Jonathan, born on May 18. Jerry has three other sons, David, Mark and Michael, from a previous marriage.

BACK-TO-BACK: Last year, the Lakers became the first club to win back-to-back NBA titles since the Boston Celtics won in 1968 and 1969. . . the Lakers have won six titles since then, most of any club. . .the Lakers have won five NBA titles in the '80's.

MITCH KUPCHAK

Mitch Kupchak has made the transition from basketball player to executive about as smoothly as he used to glide up and down the court — actually, a little smoother.

Mitch is beginning his third season as the Lakers' Assistant General Manager and, with the retirement of club president Bill Sharman, will assume more responsibility in assisting Jerry West in the day-to-day management of the club. Among his duties over the past two years have been developing and upgrading the basketball staff's computer system, scouting college players, arranging the club's pre-season schedule, and, most recently, overseeing the planning of the club's training camp in Hawaii.

When Mitch signed to play with the Lakers in the summer of 1981, one of the provisions in his long-term contract was that he would continue to work for Laker owner Dr. Jerry Buss in some capacity following his retirement from playing. In preparation for that career move, he studied for an MBA degree at UCLA during his spare time, and received that degree in February, 1987.

Mitch was born in Hicksville, New York on May 24, 1954 and starred at Brentwood High School on Long Island. He was a standout at the University of North Carolina and led the Tar Heels to an Atlantic Coast Conference tournament title in his junior season, then was named the league's Player of the Year as a senior.

Mitch was a member of the gold-medal winning U.S. team in the 1976 Olympics and also helped win a gold medal for the U.S. at the World University Games in Moscow in 1973.

He was a first-round draft choice of the Bullets in 1976 and spent his first five seasons there, primarily as a back-up for Wes Unseld and Elvin Hayes. He was a major contributor off the bench to the Bullets' NBA Championship club in 1978, and remains one of 15 players in NBA history to have played on Championship clubs with two different franchises.

In August, 1981, he was acquired by the Lakers in exchange for Jim Chones, Brad Holland and two draft picks. Mitch was a starter for the Lakers for the first 26 games of the 1981-82 campaign, averaging 14.3 points and 8.1 rebounds, before suffering multiple injuries to his left knee which required two surgeries. It was feared, even expected, that he would never play again, but Mitch proved the doctors wrong by returning to the Lakers in November, 1983 after undergoing daily therapy for 16 months.

BIGTHEBELLY Archive.org

He was a major contributor off the bench as the club captured the 1985 title, but suffered a series of injuries the following year, including a contusion to his larynx which made him virtually inaudible for several months, a sprained ankle, and twice sprained his previously injured left knee.

Prior to the start of the 1986-87 campaign, after another lengthy rehabilitation following arthroscopic knee surgery, Mitch accepted an offer to assume his present position and announced his retirement from playing.

Mitch is single and resides in Westwood.

WARMING UP FOR THE PLAYOFFS: Over the final four regular-season games last season the Lakers hit 197-346 FGs (.569)...included in that span was a season-high .621 outing (54-87) at San Antonio April 19...that enabled the Lakers to rank second in the NBA with a .505 FG pct., though that's the club's lowest figure since going .487 in 1977-78...the Lakers made 18 consecutive FGs in the first quarter against Houston on Jan. 18...the team FG pct. has fallen from .545 in 1984-85 to .522 in 1985-86 to .516 in 1986-87 to last year's .505.

D: The Lakers yielded a slightly higher FG pct. last year (.476) than in 1986-87 (.467), but did limit foes to their lowest point total since 1976-77 (104.1)...the Lakers limited the Blazers to an NBA-season-low .284 FGs (27-95) on Jan. 3.

PAT RILEY

Moments after the Lakers defeated the Boston Celtics to clinch the 1987 NBA title, Pat Riley "guaranteed" that the team would become the first team to repeat as league champions in nearly two decades.

After the Lakers fulfilled that mission, Pat developed a theme for the 1988-89 season: "We've only just begun." He reasoned that other than 41-year-old Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, about to enter his 20th and final NBA season, each of the club's other regular contributors was either in, or entering into, the prime years of their career. Indeed, none of the other four regular starters will be older than 29 when this season concludes, so this is a team that can still get better.

Pat may not always take the most traditional approach to his ballclub, but one can not argue with his success. The former Laker owns the highest winning percentages in NBA history, both for regular-season (.734) and playoff (.696) competition. He has reached 300 and 400 victories faster than any coach in NBA history, breaking Billy Cunningham's latter record of 572 games in his 540th contest March 9 at New York.

When the Lakers defeated the Pistons in the seventh game of the Championship Series last June, it was the 500th overall (regular-season and playoff) career victory for Pat, an astonishing average of more than 70 wins in each of his seven seasons as the club's head coach. The Lakers have won four titles in those seven seasons and have appeared in the Championship Series six times, and his 87 career playoff wins put him within striking distance this spring of Red Auerbach's all-time record of 98.

Pat was born on March 20, 1945 and attended Linton High School in Schenectady, New York, where he starred in football and basketball. He was so accomplished on the gridiron, in fact, that he was later an 11th-round draft choice of the Dallas Cowboys despite the fact that he didn't play any football in college. His brother, Lee, played defensive back in the NFL and his father, Leon, was a major league catcher and minor league manager.

He enjoyed his greatest success on the basketball floor, however, including a win as a senior over Power Memorial High School of New York which featured a sophomore named Lew Alcindor (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar) at center. Riley still credits his high school coach, Walt Przybylo, as one of his greater influences.

Pat also points to his coach at the University of Kentucky, the legendary Adolph Rupp, as one of his role models. He was the Wildcats' MVP for three years and served as team captain as a senior, although he had his best season as a junior when he averaged 22 points per game and led Kentucky to the NCAA Finals, where they lost to Texas Western (University of Texas at El Paso).

He was the seventh player selected in the first round of the 1967 college draft by the San Diego Rockets, where he played for three seasons. In May of 1970 the Portland Trail Blazers selected Pat in the expansion draft, but later sold him to the Lakers prior to the start of the season.

Pat spent more than five years of his nine-year NBA career with the Lakers and was a member of the record-setting (69-13) 1971-72 club. His best season came in 1974-75 when he averaged 11 points per game and had a career-high 38-point outing. The Lakers dealt him to the Phoenix Suns early in the following season and he retired after that campaign.

After his playing days were concluded Pat joined Chick Hearn in the Laker broadcast booth and he was just beginning his third season behind the microphone when Jack McKinney, the club's new head coach, was seriously injured in a bicycle accident. Assistant coach Paul Westhead replaced McKinney as head coach and, while waiting for a plane at the Denver Airport shortly thereafter, asked Pat to join him as his assistant. The Lakers went on to win the NBA title that year, and Pat later became the 12th head coach in Laker history when he replaced Westhead on November 19, 1981.

The Lakers won 11 of their first 13 games under Pat, and finished the season by winning 50 of 71 games. The club won 12 of 14 post-season contests, including an NBA-record nine wins in a row with back-to-back series sweeps, en route to winning the title.

The Lakers set another record last season by becoming the first club in NBA history to record four straight 60-win campaigns. After posting 62-20 records in 1984-85 and 1985-86, the club improved to 65-17 in 1986-87, a record surpassed by just five clubs in NBA history.

The Lakers seemed to take Pat's "guarantee" as a challenge last season, and responded promptly by winning their first eight games, the best beginning in club history. In a season of long-ranging peaks and a few short valleys, the Lakers also had a 15-game winning streak, the second-longest in club history, and a club-record 12-1 ledger in February, which earned Pat NBA Coach of the Month recognition.

The club finished with its third 62-20 mark in the last four years, then won the coveted back-to-back title after struggling through an NBA-record 24 playoff games, becoming the first team ever to compete in three successive seven-game series.

Overall, the Lakers are 413-150 under Pat in regular-season play, 87-38 in post-season competition. The club has won four titles in his seven seasons and he is the first coach to have led his team into the NBA Finals in each of his first four campaigns. He has coached in the All-Star Game in six of his seven campaigns, posting a 2-4 record.

In addition to being the winningest coach in league history Pat has emerged as an innovator, showing selected video replays to the team at half-time, preparing personalized motivational and instructional videotapes for Laker players and advocating technological advances, such as headphones for coaches on the bench.

Pat is actively sought for speaking engagements, and makes numerous appearances as a lecturer at summer camps, including his own in Thousand Oaks. He and his wife, Chris, are also involved with numerous charity and community service projects.

Pat's recap of the Lakers' 1986-87 season, "Showtime", made some best-seller lists last spring, and he has also worked on a book and motivational film in which he applies his philosophies of teamwork to business and life in general.

Pat Riley's 413-150 record since becoming the Lakers' head coach on November 19, 1981, gives him a (.734) regular-season winning percentage, the highest in NBA history, and he has won at least 50 percent of his games against each of the other NBA clubs. Here is Pat's record against the 22 other NBA clubs in regular-season games during his tenure as Lakers' head coach:

Atlanta	12-2	Houston	28-5	Phoenix	29-11
Boston	8-6	Indiana	10-3	Portland	29-9

BILL BERTKA

Pat Riley has a simple term when describing the complex role of his top assistant, Bill Bertka: "the administrator of all things."

Bill's duties range from compiling and organizing scouting reports and statistical data, keeping tabs on prospects both in college, the CBA and Europe, to working one-on-one before and after practices with a developing player.

When Riley became the club's head coach in November, 1981, one of the first moves he made was to ask Bill to be his assistant, and he frequently credits the his sage-like assistant for much of his own success as the winningest coach in NBA history.

Bill, 61, is actually in his second tour of duty with the Lakers. He originally joined the club in 1968, serving as the club's chief scout and director of player personnel for six years. He then joined the New Orleans Jazz when the club was formed in 1974 and served that club in a variety of roles, including General Manager, director of player personnel and assistant coach and was the primary architect during the first eight years of the team's existence, before rejoining the Lakers early in the 1981-82 campaign.

He is perhaps best known as the founder of Bertka Views, the most successful college scouting service in the country, now operated by his wife, Solveig. Many of the nation's premier college basketball programs utilize Bertka Views as their sole scouting service. Meanwhile, Bill, long recognized for his scouting ability, maintains access to more scouting reports on college talent than anyone.

Bill played his college ball at Kent State University and played in the old National Industrial Basketball League before embarking on careers in coaching and scouting.

He served as head coach at Hancock College in Santa Maria from 1954-57, leading the team to a 42-game winning streak, a 97-13 overall record and a Junior College State Championship in 1957. He then left Hancock and returned to his alma mater, where he served as head coach for four years and helped elevate Kent State's program to the major-college level.

Bill and Solveig have two daughters, Britt and Kris, and make their home in Santa Barbara.

RANDY PFUND

Pat Riley no doubt raised some eyebrows around the NBA in September of 1985 when he named a 33-year-old assistant coach at a small, NAIA school as an assistant coach with the NBA Champion Lakers.

But Randy Pfund has proven to be a valuable part of the Laker brain-trust, be it by scouting future opponents, compiling scouting reports and presenting them to the team, or preparing personalized video scouting reports for each player prior to the start of each round of the playoffs. As a result, Randy is on the road for most of the season, and even when he's in town for a home game he spends the first half upstairs in the auxiliary press box coordinating the Lakers' half-time video session, before joining the club on the bench for the second half.

Randy grew up in Wheaton, Illinois, and starred in basketball and football at North High School there. He later earned honorable mention All-America honors in basketball at Wheaton College, where his father, Lee, was head coach.

He worked as a high school teacher and coach in Illinois for two years before he quit and took a gamble — which paid off with him hitting the jackpot. Randy talked his way into a job as an unpaid voluntary assistant at Westmont College in Santa Barbara, where he remained for eight years. Eventually, he began to get paid for his efforts, and also took over as director of the school's booster organization.

While at Westmont he became familiar with another Santa Barbara resident involved with coaching, Bill Bertka, and when Dave Wohl resigned as Laker assistant to become head coach of the New Jersey Nets, Riley selected Randy as his successor, citing his scouting and administrative experience as major factors in the decision.

Randy has also demonstrated potential as a head coach, guiding the Lakers to the Southern California Summer Pro League title in 1987, but falling short of back-to-back titles as his team lost in this year's championship game.

Randy is single and lives in Marina del Rey.

7-7-7: If these numbers came up for you on a slot machine, you'd hit the jackpot. Well, those numbers came up for the Lakers last season in the form of three, consecutive seven-game series, and the Lakers hit the jackpot by winning the NBA title. The Lakers became the first club in NBA history to endure three seventh games en route to last year's title.

GENE TORMOHLEN

If the U.S. Postal Service ever decides to abandon the eagle and choose a new logo, they may want to consider a photo of Gene Tormohlen. After all, the steady stream of scouting reports that he sends to Laker General Manager Jerry West on college prospects from his base in Georgia no doubt have precluded the mail service from making increases in postal rates even more frequently, not to mention a few overnight delivery services.

"Bumper," as he is known throughout the NBA, is beginning his sixth season scouting collegiate talent for the Lakers, his 21st in scouting overall.

The 6-9 native of Holland, Indiana, was a two-time All-SEC performer at Tennessee, serving as captain of the Vols as a senior. Gene played for the St. Louis Hawks for six years, retiring as the club moved to Atlanta in 1968.

He also played with the amateur Cleveland Pipers of the National Industrial Basketball League, leading the team to league and AAU titles in his second season, and played with the Kansas City Steers of the American Basketball League for two years.

Gene served as a scout and assistant coach with the Atlanta Hawks for eight years, then served as a scout with the Chicago Bulls for seven seasons before joining the Laker staff prior to the 1983-84 campaign.

RONNIE LESTER

When the Laker brain trust gathered the weekend before the draft to review the prospects available, a funny pattern seemed to develop. Virtually every time someone wondered whether anyone in the room had seen a particular player, Ronnie Lester would quietly nod that he had.

It seems that the 29-year-old Lester did little else but see games in his first season as a Laker scout, working out of his home in the midwest.

Ronnie spent the final two seasons of his injury-plagued, six-year, NBA career with the Lakers. He signed as a free agent with the club on November 29, 1984 and appeared in 59 regular-season and nine playoff games during his two seasons with the Lakers, and was a member of the club's 1985 NBA Championship club.

A first-round choice of the Portland Trail Blazers in 1980, 10th overall, he was traded on draft day to his hometown Chicago Bulls. He played with the Bulls for four years, enjoying his best season in 1981-82 when he averaged 11.6 points and 4.8 assists and started 74 of his 75 outings.

Ronnie earned All-America honors at the University of Iowa, where they retired his uniform after he became the school's all-time leader in scoring and assists.

GARY VITTI

When Gary Vitti became the Lakers' trainer four years ago, he brought with him some innovative ideas in conditioning, dieting, stretching and testing. Since the club has won three NBA titles over that span, it's obvious he hasn't exactly hurt the club during his tenure.

Among his related duties are the care, prevention and rehabilitation of injuries to Laker players, responsibility for all equipment, overseeing the club's transportation and hotel accommodations on the road as well as taking care of the team's practice schedule.

Gary, 34, grew up in Stamford, Connecticut and attended Stamford Catholic High School. He earned a B.S. from Southern Connecuticut State in 1976 and an M.S. in sports medicine from the University of Utah in 1982. In addition to studying at the University of Utah he spent two years as a trainer there as well as two years as an assistant trainer with the Utah Jazz. He then served as the head athletic trainer at the University of Portland for two years before joining the Lakers prior to the 1984-85 season.

Gary is frequently asked to speak about conditioning to various groups, has supervised physiological profile studies published in English and Japanese and has written a monthly column for "Sports Medicine Digest."

CHICK HEARN

All you need to know about Chick Hearn and his dedication to the Lakers is this: on the night of his 50th wedding anniversary in August, Chick was sitting courtside at Loyola Marymount University, announcing one of the club's Summer League games for the Prime Ticket Network...and he loved every minute of it.

This shouldn't come as a surprise when talking about Hearn, the lone person still affiliated with the club from its first season in Los Angeles in 1960-61 and the only play-by-play announcer the team has ever known.

To select Chick's career highlight, not including the six NBA titles the team has won in his presence, would be difficult. It could be "Chick Hearn Night", which the team held in his honor on March 28, 1961 and included a congratulatory telegram from another former midwestern sportscaster, President Reagan. Then came the rainy day in the fall of 1986, when a star bearing his name was installed on Hollywood Boulevard's "Walk of Fame."

Perhaps no event demonstrates his durability, however, as much as the February 28, 1987 game at the Salt Palace in Salt Lake City, his 2,000th consecutive Laker game (regular season and playoff) behind the microphone, a streak that has since grown to 2,148 games.

Although best-known for his work with the Lakers, Chick has broadcast virtually every conceivable kind of sporting event, including NCAA football, UNLV basketball, PGA golf tournaments, the first Ali-Frazier fight, the Rose Bowl, the East-West Shrine football game, celebrity tennis and Bowling for Dollars. In addition to Laker radio/tv simulcasts Chick also broadcasts Forum boxing and tennis events on the Prime Ticket Network.

Chick's near-non-stop work schedule also includes numerous commercials and movie spots and he's a popular after-dinner speaker. Three years ago he recorded a hit rap record, "Wrap Around", and he also helped create "Chick's Dream Game" fantasy tapes.

Born Francis Dayle Hearn, Chick grew up in Aurora, Illinois and attended Bradley University. He was given the nickname "Chick" when, as an AAU basketball player, he was handed a box of sneakers only to be surprised to find a chicken inside.

Chick came to Los Angeles in 1956 to broadcast USC football and basketball and later did a nightly radio sports show that earned him two Emmy Awards in the 1960's. He joined the Lakers as play-by-play announcer during the playoffs in 1961, the club's first season in Los Angeles, and he has been a fixture ever since. He has received a Golden Mike Award, has twice been named National Sportscaster of the Year and has been feted by numerous other groups, including the Anti-Defammation League last season.

STU LANTZ

Of course, working at The Forum is nothing new for the 42-year-old native of Uniontown, Pennsylvania, since he played for the Lakers for three seasons in the mid-70's before retiring in July, 1977.

Following his premature retirement, hastened by a back injury, Stu immediately embarked on a broadcasting career. He served as a commentator for the San Diego Clippers, San Diego State University, the University of Nevada-Las Vegas and CBS, and prior to working Laker games broadcast Summer League action with Chick Hearn on the Prime Ticket Network.

Stu graduated from the University of Nebraska in 1968 and was a third-round draft choice of the San Diego Rockets. He spent his first three seasons in San Diego and enjoyed his best pro campaign in 1970-71, his third season, when he averaged 20.6 points per game for the Rockets.

He also played for the Houston Rockets, Detroit Pistons and New Orleans Jazz before being traded to the Lakers in December, 1974, where he remained through the 1976-77 campaign. He sat out that entire final season due to a back injury before retiring. Stu averaged 7.1 points in 109 regular-season outings as a Laker.

In addition to his duties with the Lakers Stu is vice president of Micro Electronic Components, Inc. in Carlsbad, and stays close to the game in the summer by assisting in the operation of the renowned Pete Newell Big-Man Camp in the Bay Area.

PACIFIC SPECIFICS: The Lakers captured the Pacific Division title for the seventh consecutive season last year...since the league went with the four division alignment in 1970-71 the Milwaukee Bucks are the only club to have won seven consecutive division titles, although the Bucks won the first in 1979-80 as a member of the Midwest Division, then won the next six Central Division titles before Atlanta prevailed in 1986-87...the only club to have won more consecutive titles is the Celtics, who won nine consecutive Eastern Division banners from 1956-57 through 1964-65, when the NBA just had the two divisions...the Lakers had undisputed possession of first place in the division after December 8 last year.

Acquired in a trade with the Milwaukee Bucks on June 16, 1975 with Walt Wesley for Elmore Smith, Brian Winters and the draft rights to Dave Meyers and Junior Bridgeman.

1987-88: The leading scorer in NBA history is entering his unprecedented 20th, and final, campaign. . . incredibly, he's appeared in 533 games more than any other active player, which translates to more than six and a half full seasons. . . he has scored nearly 16,000 more points than any other active player, and only three current foes (Moses Malone, Alex English and Adrian Dantley) enter this season with even half as many points as he's scored (37,639). . . already owned so many NBA records that his lone major milestones last year came when he passed Oscar Robertson to become the all-time leading scorer in All-Star Game competition, and when he became the first player in league history to appear in a 200th playoff game. . . no longer the primary focus of the Laker offense he averaged his career-low 14.6 points last season, more than 10 points below his career average...had his NBA-record streak of 787 consecutive regular-season games scoring in double figures snapped at Milwaukee Dec. 4, and limited to single digits on 13 occasions. . . finished the season hitting 82-133 (.617) over his last 13 games and his .532 FG pct. led Laker qualifiers. . . that was still his low FG pct. since he shot .529 in his first season with the Lakers (1975-76). . . averaged just 11.3 shots per game after taking 12.7 the year before. . . averaged 28.8 minutes in his 80 outings, compared to an average of 31.3 minutes in 1986-87. . . his 478 rebounds tie his career low of 1985-86, and his average was a career-low 6.0. . . played in 80 games for first time since 1983-84 and last made more appearances in 1979-80 when he played in all 82 contests. . . joins Bob Cousy, who appeared in seven games as player-coach of the Cincinnati Royals in 1969-70, as the only 41-year-olds in NBA history, and this year he'll become the oldest player in league history. . . had four double-doubles. . . became first NBA player to reach 37,000 points Jan. 18 vs. Houston. . . scored his season-high 27 points vs. Sacramento Dec. 1, 12 rebounds vs. Phoenix March 19. . . scored 20 or more points 14 times. . . hit six consecutive hook shots down the stretch of the Lakers' 113-112 win over New York Jan. 22. . . made his unprecedented 17th All-Star Game appearance. . . low game of two points came March 1 at Seattle. . . became first player to appear in the playoffs for a 17th season. . . averaged 14.1 points, 5.5 rebounds and 29.9 minutes in the playoffs, all career lows. . . had his playoff highs of 26 points in Game 5 of the Championship Series at Detroit, 11 rebounds in Game 4 of the Western Conference Semifinals at Utah. . . averaged 17 points and 4.7 rebounds vs. Spurs, 12.4 points and 6.9 rebounds vs. Jazz, 15.4 points and 7.1 rebounds vs. Mavs and 13.1 points and 4.1 boards in the Championship Series vs. the Pistons. . . began last season having scored more points than the entire rosters of 12 clubs. . . only missed one game due to illness or injury, Feb. 23, due to the flu.

CAREER: Kareem begins his final NBA campaign as the league's all-time leader in eight categories, both for regular-season and playoff competition: years, games, minutes, FGM, FGA, personal fouls, blocked shots and points. . . only player in NBA history to have won six MVP awards (1971-72-74-76-77-79). . . selected to the All-Star Game 18 times, All-NBA first team 10 times and All-Defensive team 11 times, five on first team. . . one of 15 players to have won NBA titles with two different franchises. . . Rookie of the Year in 1969-70 with the Milwaukee Bucks and the league's second-leading scorer (29.9) that year. . . in addition to winning his first MVP Award the following year he was named playoff MVP as Milwaukee swept the Bullets for the title. . . made it back-to-back MVPs and scoring titles in 1971-72 as he tossed in his career-high 34.8 points per game. . . averaged more than 44 minutes per game that year and scored his career-high 55 points at Boston. . . runner-up for MVP in 1972-73 but won his third trophy the following year, finishing third in scoring (27.0) and fourth in rebounding (14.5). . . came to the Lakers prior to the 1975-76 season in a trade that sent Junior Bridgeman, Dave Meyers, Elmore Smith and Brian Winters to the Bucks. . . added three more MVP awards with the Lakers in 1975-76, '76-77 and '78-79. . . passed Wilt Chamberlain to become NBA's all-time scoring leader on a hook shot vs. Utah at Las Vegas on April 5, 1984. . . earned his second playoff MVP award, 14 years apart, when Lakers defeated the Celtics for the 1985 NBA title. . . averaged 17.5 points in 1986-87, marking the first time as a pro that he failed to lead his team in scoring, although his rebound average improved from 6.1 the year before to 6.7 that season. . . has averaged 23.0 points since joining the Lakers and ranks with Jerry West and Elgin Baylor among the club's top three in virtually every statistical category. . . credit veteran announcer Eddie Doucette with naming Kareem's favorite weapon the "sky-hook" back in his Milwaukee days. . . has scored 40 or more points 70 times and has grabbed 25 or more rebounds on 16 occasions. . . ranks among all-time leaders in virtually every statistical category (see chart). . . he's also the active leader in FTA and rebounds. . . figures to pass Jerry West as Lakers' all-time playoff leader in minutes and FGs this year. . . in addition to the categories listed above and the accompanying chart, he ranks second in FTM, third in FTA and rebounds, seventh in steals and 10th in assists on the NBA's all-time playoff list. . . major milestones to look for this season include becoming the first player in NBA history to appear in 1,500 games and the first to reach 38,000 points.

COLLEGE: Kareem is the only player to have led his team to three NCAA titles, as UCLA compiled a 12-0 tournament record during his three years there. . . only player to be named Oustanding Player of the NCAA Tournament for three years, too. . . the Bruins were 88-2 overall during his three year career as he scored 2,325 points, an average of 26.4. . . broke Jerry Lucas' career FG pct. record shooting .639 (943-1476). . . named College Player of the Year in 1967 and 1969, runner-up to Elvin Hayes as a junior. . . a three-time unanimous All-America selection.

PERSONAL: Kareem earned national recognition while attending New York's Power Memorial High School as his teams went 95-6 over his four years, including a 71-game winning streak. . . changed his name from Lew Alcindor in 1971. . . Kareem means "generous," Abdul "servant for Allah," and Jabbar "powerful". . . his customized Bel Air home was destroyed by fire on Jan. 31, 1983, although it has since been rebuilt and he has moved back into it. . . named "Sports Illustrated" Sportsman of the Year for 1985. . . will pursue a career in the entertainment industry following his basketball career and has signed with Triad Artists Inc. for future representation. . . has made several appearances as an actor, including roles in movies like "Fletch" and "Airplane" and the television series "Different Strokes", to name a few. . . has served as a guest VJ on MTV. . . has promoted several concerts, including Forum appearances by Diana Ross, Tom Petty and Lionel Ritchie. . . Kareem's revealing autobiography, "Giant Steps", appeared on the best-seller lists during the 1983-84 campaign, and he is writing another book centered around his final NBA season. . . remains prominently affiliated with several charity and community service groups, most notably the Retinitis Pigmentosa Foundation, Sport Aid and several campaigns promoting literacy. . . a voracious reader, seldom seen without a book. . . spent most of the summer at his home on Kauai. . . Kareem has two daughters, Sultana and Habiba, and two sons, Kareem and Amir.

19 TONY CAMPBELL

Ht: 6-7 Wt: 215
Position: Guard/Forward
Born: May 7, 1962 (Teaneck, New Jersey)
High School: Teaneck
College: Ohio State '84
Residence: Inglewood

Signed as a free agent with the Lakers on March 30, 1988.

1987-88: The Lakers may have made history by winning a second NBA title in a row last season, but even they couldn't match the year Tony had...the former Ohio State star played on two championship teams in one year, since he spent most of the season with the Albany Patroons, the eventual champions of the CBA...when the Lakers signed him on March 30 it was more than a late-season signing to fill out the roster...the Lakers had a specific need for a back-up small forward and showed confidence in Tony by signing him through the remainder of the season...made an immediate impact, averaging 11 points in 18.6 minutes over the Lakers' final 13 games...saved his best for last, scoring his career-high 28 points and getting his Laker highs of five rebounds and 35 minutes in the regular-season finale April 24 vs. Golden State...led club in scoring in two other games and started April 15 vs. Suns in place of James Worthy (tendinitis), getting eight points (4-4 FGs) in 17 minutes...averaged 12.2 points with 50-83 FGs (.602) over his last 10 outings...had a banner season in the CBA with the Patroons (48-6), leading the league in FG (.647) and FT (.861) pct. and ranking third in scoring (23.7) to win league Newcomer of the Year honors...averaged 28.4 points in five first-round playoff games vs. Savannah...began last season by signing with the Washington Bullets as a free agent in October but was released after appearing in six pre-season games...averaged 3.1 points in 15 playoff outings with the Lakers, getting his career post-season-high 14 points in Game 6 of the Western Conference Semifinals at Utah...averaged 3.7 against the Spurs in the playoffs, 3.3 points in six outings against the Jazz, 2 points in four games against Dallas and 4 points in two outings in the Championship Series against the Pistons.

CAREER: Tony was a first-round pick of Detroit in 1984 (20th overall) and spent his first three seasons there, averaging his career-high 7.9 points while appearing in all 82 games in 1985-86...averaged 2.5 points in eight playoff contests during his tenure with the Pistons...averaged 5.6 points in 56 games as a rookie in 1984-85, DNP-CD in the other 26 contests, and scored in double figures on six occasions...served as first forward off the bench in his second season and scored in double figures on 30 occasions...scored his then-career-high 20 points on Dec. 3, 1985 vs. Philadelphia, and made his first NBA start Dec. 30, 1985 vs. Milwaukee...played in 40 games in 1986-87, with 42 DNP-CDs, scoring double figures five times with a high of 17 vs. San Antonio Dec. 19...signed as a free agent with Washington prior to last season but released after appearing in six pre-season games.

COLLEGE: Tony majored in communications at Ohio State...paced the Buckeyes in scoring as a junior and senior, earning All-Big 10 honors in both seasons...averaged his college-high 19.0 points as a junior, 18.6 as a senior...his FG and FT pcts. improved each year, topping off at .513 and .807, respectively...selected as Big 10 player of the year by AP after his senior season as he led the Buckeyes in four statistical categories.

PERSONAL: Tony was the unofficial pool champion during the club's week-long stay in Detroit in last year's Championship Series...lived in a hotel near The Forum after joining the Lakers late last season...returns to his hometown of Teaneck, New Jersey during the off-season and spends a lot of time at the Jersey Shore...averaged 30.3 points with .646 FGs in the Lakers' 10 Summer League games, with a high of 53 points when he made 22-25 FGs...enjoys going to the movies with his teammates when on the road, with a particular fondness for kung-fu flicks...loves the outdoors and enjoys fishing...he's single.

FORUM QUORUM: The Lakers set a club record by attracting more than 700,000 fans to The Forum last year...the Lakers averaged 17,426 in home attendance, 99.5 percent of capacity...the former record of 689,905 was set in 1985-86...the Lakers sold out The Forum for their final 30 home games, 35 of 36 and 38 of 41.

21 MICHAEL COOPER

Ht: 6-7 Wt: 176
Position: Guard/Forward
Born: April 15, 1956 (Los Angeles)
High School: Pasadena
College: New Mexico '78
Residence: Los Angeles

1987-88: If the 1986-87 season was Michael's most satisfying as a pro, winning his fourth NBA title and first Defensive Player of the Year award, then this past year was just as frustrating. . . his 455 consecutive-game streak (556 including playoffs) came to an abrupt halt Jan. 24 at Seattle when he was suspended for a game for his role in a fight two nights earlier against New York. . . less than a month later he suffered his first injury that caused him to miss action since the 1981-82 campaign, when he sprained his left ankle at Houston Feb. 18. . . that injury caused him to miss a total of 20 games, 12 while he was on the Injured List for the first time since 1978-79, eight after trying to come back for two contests. . . in his 11 games back after missing those 20 he averaged 6.2 points with 23-79 FGs (.291) and 8-32 3FGs (.250). . . for the season he averaged 8.7 points, down from 10.5 a year ago, and shot a career-low .392 FGs. . . his highest-scoring game after the injury came April 20 at Dallas when he scored 14 points as a starter in place of James Worthy (tendinitis). . . still, he was voted to the NBA All-Defensive Team for the eighth consecutive year, his fifth time as a first-team choice. . . had his season highs in rebounds (12 at Washington Dec. 9) and points (21 at Boston Dec. 11) in back-to-back games, getting his season-high 11 assists vs. Denver Nov. 27. . . averaged more points against the Celtics (16.5) than any other club. . . scored in double figures on 25 occasions. . . averaged his career-low 6.4 points in the playoffs with 54-131 FGs (.412). . . his lone FG with seven seconds to play in Game 5 of the Lakers' second-round series vs. Utah provided him with the first game-winning basket of his career. . . had his playoff-high 13 points in Game 2 of the Western Conference Semifinals vs. Utah, and had 12 points with two key 3FGs in the seventh and final game of the Championship Series. . . averaged 5.7 points against the Spurs, 7.0 points vs. Utah, 8.7 points vs. Dallas and 3.7 points in the finals vs. the Pistons.

CAREER: Michael was the Lakers' third-round selection in the 1978 college draft, the 60th player chosen overall. . . appeared in just three games as a rookie, but missed only seven games in the next eight seasons before last year, appearing in all 82 games six times. . . tore a knee ligament playing in a summer league prior to his rookie campaign, returned to the club and made three appearances before aggravating the injury, then missed the remainder of the season. . . appeared in all 82 games the following year and was an integral part of that Championship club. . . had his highest-scoring season in 1981-82 averaging 11.9 points and registering the four highest-scoring games of his career, three within a five-day span in December. . . had his career-high 31 points February 7, 1982, leading a successful Laker rally with 16 fourth-quarter points. . . prior to last season, he last missed a game April 2, 1982. . . set club records for 3FGM-A in 1985-86, and again the following season. . . owns the club record of five 3FGs in one game and set a Championship Series record by hitting six in Game 2 in 1987 vs. Boston., including five in a row in the second quarter. . . ranks fifth on the NBA's all-time list for 3FGM (298), third in 3FGA (893), in regular season play. . . all-time NBA playoff leader in both categories (100-249) and his .402 3FG pct. is the fourth-highest in post-season history, ranking sixth in steals. . . his career 3FG records are even more impressive when you consider that he was 16-77 (regular season) and 2-14 (playoffs) over his first four full seasons. . . moving up on Laker all-time lists, ranking third in steals and blocked shots, fourth in games, fifth in assist average, sixth in minutes, FT pct., offensive and defensive rebounds and assists and seventh in personal fouls. . . owns the highest playoff FT pct. (.825) in club history and ranks third in assists, tied for third in games, eighth in scoring and 10th in rebounds on the club's post-season chart. . . owns the four-game Championship Series record for personal fouls (20) in a four-game series, set in 1983.

COLLEGE: Michael attended Pasadena City College, averaging 20.2 points as a sophomore before transferring to New Mexico. . . co-captain and second-leading scorer at New Mexico as a senior, earning All-America honors from the U.S. Basketball Writers Association. . . his collegiate scoring high was 26 points. . . New Mexico was 41-14 during his two years there.

PERSONAL: Michael is considered one of the best all-around athletes in professional sports, and his durability is even more phenomenal when one considers that doctors feared he might never walk again after a childhood accident left him with 100 stitches in his leg. . . very active in charity and community service work, and was cited along with the New York Knicks' Rory Sparrow as co-recipients of the J. Walter Kennedy Citizenship Award in 1986. . . his nomination was based solely on the work he does independently from the club, such as his "Call Coop" hot-line for troubled teenagers in New Mexico. . . has voluntarily spent weekends locked up in a juvenile detention center to spend some time with the youths. . . spent part of the summer at his home in Albuquerque. . . conducted camps for kids in New Mexico and Pasadena, and joined Kurt Rambis in hosting an adult camp benefiting the building fund of the Center For An Early Education, where his children attend school. . . did some globetrotting over the summer, including a week-long stay at a camp in Italy for the fifth time and a trip to Australia, where he assisted a professional team in implementing a running game. . . also visted Singapore. . . hosted a celebrity tennis tournament in New Mexico which raised over $50,000 for the University of New Mexico Children's Hospital. . . joined Kareem Abdul-Jabbar and Earvin Johnson as the Lakers' authors-in-residence with his book, "No Slack", an instructional, inspirational and autobiographical work aimed at teenagers. . . Michael and his wife, Wanda, live in Los Angeles with their son, Michael Jr., and daughter, Simone, who was born five hours after the Lakers were defeated by Philadelphia in the 1983 Championship Series.

Signed by the Lakers as a free agent on November 7, 1986.

1987-88: In 1986-87, Mike became the first Canadian to play for an NBA Championship club. . . now he's the first Canadian to play on back-to-back title teams. . . Mike's statistics improved in every category from last season, with an increase in playing time from 233 minutes to 421. . . was a fixture in the club's rotation for awhile, appearing in 25 straight games Jan. 24-March 15, averaging 3.3 points, 1.6 rebounds and 1 block in 8.3 minutes. . . made two starts in place of Kareem, getting 10 points and seven rebounds Feb. 23 vs. Washington, four points and a rebound in 16 minutes April 22 vs. Phoenix. . . closed out the season with his Laker highs of 12 points and 28 minutes vs. Golden State, taking six rebounds and blocking three shots. . . DNP-CD on 32 occasions and sat out Dec. 2 vs. Portland due to stomach problems. . . had his Laker-high eight rebounds vs. Clippers Nov. 12, career-high four blocks Jan. 26 vs. Utah. . . scored in double figures four times. . . led the team by fouling out of three contests. . . totaled three points, six rebounds and three blocks in 34 minutes in eight playoff outings. . . had two rebounds in six scoreless minutes in his two Championship Series outings against the Pistons. . . DNP-CD in 16 post-season outings.

CAREER: Mike was a second-round choice of Portland, 25th overall, in the 1985 draft but was traded to Chicago for Ken Johnson and the rights to Ben Coleman. . . appeared in 38 games as a rookie with the Bulls in 1985-86, five as a starter, averaging 2.8 points and 2.9 rebounds. . . saw limited action in all three of the Bulls' playoff games against the Celtics that year. . . had his best pro outing against Boston while with the Bulls on March 4, 1986, getting career highs of 15 points and 11 rebounds. . . scored in double figures twice and led the club in blocked shots on seven occasions. . . released by Chicago prior to the start of the 1986-87 season and signed with the Lakers on Nov. 7, 1986, after the club learned that back-up center Petur Gudmundsson would liklely be sidelined for the remainder of the season due to a back injury. . . averaged 2.2 points in 35 regular-season outings, starting three times. . . had eight points, seven rebounds and 15 personal fouls in 33 minutes over 10 playoff outings as the Lakers went on to win the NBA title.

COLLEGE: Set career records at Canisius for field goal percentage (.578) and blocked shots (172). . . averaged 15.8 points and 6.9 rebounds as a senior while leading the team in field goal percentage (.601) and blocks (52, 1.9 per game). . . had career highs of 28 points and 14 rebounds against St. Francis early in his senior campaign. . . the Golden Griffins were 20-10 that year, and the lone other 20-victory season in the school's history came in 1956-57 when they won a school-record 22 games. . . ranked 18th in the NCAA in field goal percentage as a senior at .601, though he led the North Atlantic Conference in that category. . . started just 12 games in each of his freshman and sophomore seasons. . . ranked 11th in the NCAA in field goal percentage as a junior shooting .632 while averaging 12.1 points, 5.8 rebounds and amassing a team-leading total of 54 blocks. . . received his degree in political science.

PERSONAL: Mike's first employment came working on his father's farm. . . enjoys outdoor sports like kayaking, scuba diving, fishing and camping. . . spent last season living in a hotel near LA Airport. . . averaged 12.5 points and 10.1 rebounds in six Summer League outings with the Lakers before returning home to Canada to attend a friend's wedding. . . he is single and lives in Los Angeles, spending summers in Canada.

POSTPONE THAT VACATION—AGAIN: Last year was the 12th year in a row in which the Lakers will participate in the playoffs, the longest current streak among NBA clubs...the Philadelphia 76ers had a string of 12 consecutive post-season appearances snapped last year...the Lakers have failed to qualify for the playoffs in only three years of their existence: 1958, 1975 and 1976.

Ht: 6-10 Wt: 235
Position: Center/Forward
Born: January 30, 1955 (Nassau, Bahamas)
High School: Jackson (Miami)
College: Minnesota '78
Residence: Los Angeles

Acquired by the Lakers on February 13, 1987 from San Antonio in exchange for Frank Brickowski, Petur Gudmundsson, a first-round pick in the 1987 draft, a second-round pick in the 1990 draft and cash.

1987-88: Mychal took a leave of absence from his ongoing crusade to become the Prime Minister of the Bahamas to help the Lakers win their second title in his two seasons with the club. . . finished the season strongly and wound up as the club's leading scorer off the bench averaging 11.6. . . averaged 13.7 points and 7.8 rebounds with .541 FGs over the final two months of the season. . . had nine double-doubles, all in the last 34 games of the season. . . lone Laker on playoff roster that failed to start at least once during the year. . . had his two-year Laker highs of 28 points March 20 at Golden State, 13 rebounds twice. . . missed Feb. 18-19 games at Houston and Atlanta respectively with the flu, the lone games he's missed since joining the Lakers last year. . . one of four No. 1 picks on the Laker roster. . . acquired by Lakers from San Antonio on Feb. 13, 1987 and since then the Lakers are 89-25 in regular-season play, 119-37 including playoffs. . . scored 20 or more points on six occasions. . . Lakers' top scorer (9.7) off the bench in the playoffs, too, and ranked second in rebounds (7.1). . . registered his playoff highs of 29 points and 16 rebounds in the second game of the first-round series vs. San Antonio, the lone time he led the club in scoring in the post-season. . . his productivity dropped in each successive round of the playoffs as he averaged 20.7 points and a series-leading 13 rebounds against the Spurs with 27-43 FGs (.628), 9.9 points and a team-leading 9.7 rebounds against Utah, 7.4 points and 5.4 rebounds vs. Dallas and 7 points and 3.6 rebounds in the Championship Series vs. Detroit. . . led Lakers in rebounding in seven of their first 11 playoff contests, none of the last 13. . . rebounded in double figures in six of the first eight post-season tilts, none of the last 16. . . four playoff double-doubles. . . made just 36-62 FTs (.581) in the playoffs.

CAREER: The Portland Trail Blazers made Mychal the first player selected in the 1978 college draft. . . played for Portland for seven years and sat out another season (1979-80) after suffering a broken left leg in the Bahamas in July, 1979. . . led the club in scoring once and in rebounding for four seasons, and remains the Blazers' all-time leader in minutes and rebounds. . . named to NBA All-Rookie team in 1978-79 after averaging 14.7 points and 8.3 rebounds. . . had 37 points in his second pro game October 17, 1981 vs. Kansas City, a figure he has topped only once in regular-season play, and had his career-high 22 rebounds in his ninth pro game November 3, 1978 vs. San Diego. . . sat out the entire following year, though, aside from that season, he's missed just 25 games in his nine full campaigns. . . had his best season, statistically, in 1981-82, as he finished 17th in the league in scoring (20.8) and fourth in rebounding (11.7), both figures being his career highs. . . had his regular-season scoring high (38) on December 11, 1981, at The Forum against the Lakers. . . he scored his pro career-high 40 points in the playoffs against Kansas City on April 3, 1981, a Blazer post-season record. . . Portland traded Mychal and the draft rights to Larry Krystkowiak to San Antonio in exchange for Steve Johnson on June 19, 1986. . . averaged 12.3 points and 5.6 rebounds in 49 outings with the Spurs before being dealt to the Lakers on Feb. 13, 1987, for Frank Brickowski, Petur Gudmundsson, a first-round pick in the 1987 draft (Greg Anderson), a second-round pick in the 1990 draft and cash. . . Lakers finished the regular season 28-5 after the trade. . . his first game with the club was a nationally-televised contest against Boston on Feb. 15 when, without the benefit of any practice time with the club, he scored 10 points in 29 minutes, playing the final, 20 minutes of the contest. . . his addition made the Lakers the first NBA club to have four No. 1 draft picks on its roster, as he joined Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Earvin Johnson and James Worthy. . . has missed just two games over the last three seasons. . . scored his 10,000th NBA point March 24, 1987 at Phoenix.

COLLEGE: Mychal was a two-time All-America at Minnesota, where he finished as the school's all-time leader in scoring (1,992), rebounding (956) and field goal percentage (.561). . . set school records as a sophomore with a 25.9 scoring average and a .606 field goal percentage. . . averaged 20.8 points over his four college campaigns: 12.5 as a freshman, 25.9 as a sophomore, 22.0 as a junior and 22.1 as a senior. . . hit at least 53 percent of his field goals each year.

PERSONAL: Mychal is a native of the Bahamas and returns home there every summer. . . has done some work for the Bahamas Department of Tourism, and claims he'd like to be the nation's prime minister some day. . . keeps his teammates amused with his tales of life in the Bahamas. . . has delusions of grandeur. . . named to the NBA All-Interview first team this past season after making the second team in 1986-87. . . studied business administration at Minnesota. . . TV addict and loves his soap operas. . . big fan of pro wrestling. . . would like to go into broadcasting some day. . . or politics. . . or outer space. . . Mychal, his wife Julie, and his son, Mychel, born during last season, live in Los Angeles during the season, spending time in Portland and the Bahamas during the off-season.

20 MILT WAGNER

Ht: 6-4 Wt: 180
Position: Guard
Born: February 20, 1963 (Camden, New Jersey)
High School: Camden
College: Louisville '86
Residence: Inglewood

Signed by the Lakers as a free agent on October 7, 1987.

1987-88: Although Milt was the lone rookie on the club's roster last season, he wasn't a stranger to Championship pressure: he played on the 1986 NCAA Championship team at Louisville, and competed in the 1987 CBA Championship Series as a member of the Rockford Lightning...add in the fact that he's played with the Lakers' squad in the last two Championship games of the Southern California Summer Pro League and he's been in the Championship game of the last five seasons he's competed in...appeared in 40 contests during the season and made four starts due to injuries to the backcourt, averaging 7.5 points, 3.5 assists and 17.8 minutes...pressed into emergency duty at point guard March 10 at Chicago with Earvin Johnson, Michael Cooper and Wes Matthews all injured and had his season/career highs of 14 points and 38 minutes...though that was his 27th outing of the season it was the first in which he had more than one turnover, making two, and had just 22 miscues all season...scored in double figures three times, including the regular-season finale against Golden State April 24 when he had 10 points in 20 minutes...DNP-CD 42 times, but appeared in 11 straight contests beginning with the March 10 game in Chicago, averaging 6.2 points, 2.8 assists and 12.1 minutes...averaged 4.7 points and 2 assists over the second half of the season, 2.7 points and 1 assist in the first half...hit 26-29 FTs (.897) and he's hit better than 80 percent from the line in each of his last four seasons, dating back to his sophomore year in college...had six points, two rebounds and three assists in 14 minutes over five playoff outings...DNP-CD in 18 of 24 playoff contests, and officially sat out Game 2 of the Championship Series due to a sore right ankle...had his playoff-high four points in Game 2 of the Western Conference Finals vs. Dallas.

CAREER: Milt was a second-round choice of the Dallas Mavericks in the 1986 college draft, the 35th player selected overall...released by the Mavs before the start of the season...later played in the CBA with the Rockford Lightning, averaging 13.2 points in 16 regular-season contests, and 17.1 points with .512 FGs in 17 playoff outings...played with the Lakers' Summer League entry in 1987 and averaged 23.7 points, getting a game-high 43 points in the League's Championship contest as the Lakers won the title...averaged 12 points this past summer as the Lakers made the Summer League final again.

COLLEGE: Milt played at Louisville for five seasons, receiving an extra year of eligibilty after he suffered a broken foot in the second game of what would have been his senior year...had his college-high 16.6 points per game as a junior, then averaged 14.8 points as a senior...the Cardinals reached the NCAA Final Four in three of his four campaigns, winning the title in his senior year (1986)...finished with 1,834 points, the second-leading scorer in Louisville history behind Darrell Griffith.

PERSONAL: Milt was a high school All-America at New Jersey's Camden High, averaging 33 points as a senior...was a teammate of ex-Laker Billy Thompson in high school, college and the NBA, and the pair won titles at all three levels: state title in high school, NCAA crown in college and last year's NBA Championship...Milt's high school title came in his sophomore year...hobbies include going to the movies and watching television, and enjoys The Cosby Show...also enjoys playing tennis and Ping-Pong...Milt has a five-year-old son, Dajuan, and a one-year-old daughter, Dashonda.

Ht: 6-9 Wt: 215
Position: Forward
Born: December 16, 1959 (Mansfield, Louisiana)
High School: Mansfield
College: Notre Dame '81
Residence: Studio City

Signed by the Lakers as a free agent on August 10, 1988.

1987-88: After averaging more than 21 points over the previous three seasons, the 1987-88 campaign turned into a nightmare for Orlando...first, he suffered a series of injuries, including a sliced tendon on his right little finger and a groin injury...he returned to play in 19 contests, 12 as a starter, and averaged 16.4 points, his lowest since he averaged 7.3 as a rookie...shot a career-low .445 FGs...had his season highs of 29 points and nine rebounds Nov. 17 vs. Houston...voluntarily entered a drug treatment center in Van Nuys in late February and was sidelined for the remainder of the season...signed with the Lakers on August 10.

CAREER: Orlando was a first-round draft pick of the Chicago Bulls in 1981...spent his first five seasons with the Bulls, averaging his career-low 7.3 points as a rookie in 1981-82...scoring average more than doubled in his second season and he ranked sixth in the NBA with a career-high .580 FGs, despite missing the final 25 games due to torn knee ligaments...returned to the starting lineup for the 1983-84 season opener and averaged 19.3 points in 75 contests to lead the Bulls in scoring...had his best season as a pro in 1984-85, averaging career highs of 22.9 points and 5.6 rebounds...ranked 12th in the NBA in scoring, 10th in FG pct. (.554)...sat out five games that season, three due to a pulled groin muscle and two due to back spasms...scored in double figures in all 77 of his outings, and he started 76 of them...won his lone NBA Player of the Week recognition for the period ending Dec. 8, 1984...made his first post-season appearance that season averaging 20.5 points in four games...averaged 20.7 points in 1985-86 to lead the Bulls in scoring in his final season there...ranked 19th in the NBA in scoring and produced his career-high 44 points Jan. 25, 1986 vs. Phoenix...finished the season with a .495 FG pct., the lowest of his career to that point...signed with New Jersey as a veteran free agent on Oct. 2, 1986, with the Bulls receiving a first-round choice in 1987 and second-round picks in 1988 and 1990 as compensation...averaged 20.7 points for the second year in a row in 1986-87, his third year in a row scoring more than 20 per game and the third time he led his club in scoring in four years...had 38 points on three occasions and the club's lone triple-double of the season...missed seven games due to injuries...has competed in the NBA Slam Dunk competition during All-Star Weekend.

COLLEGE: Orlando averaged 10.6 points in his 109 games at Notre Dame, more than seven points below his career NBA average...the Irish reached the NCAA Tournament in each of his four seasons, posting records of 23-8,24-6,22-6 and 23-6, respectively...shot .595 FGs in college and his FG pct. increased each year, from .526 as a freshman to .650 as a senior, ranking him third in the nation that year...averaged 4.1 points as a freshman, then scored in double figures in his final three years topped by his average of 14.4 points as a senior...started all 85 games in his final three collegiate campaigns...hit the winning basket on an 18-foot fallaway jumper vs. Virginia on Feb., 22, 1981 as Notre Dame upset No. 1-ranked Virginia, 57-56, and helped limit Ralph Sampson to 10 points in that game...second team All-America by The Sporting News as a senior, earning honorable mention from the NBA coaches and UPI.

PERSONAL: Orlando received his degree in economics at Notre Dame...is a cousin of Nets' coach and former Knicks' star Willis Reed...an avid fisherman, looking forward to the deep-sea variety once he gets settled in LA...it didn't take long: he caught a 102-pound striped marlin, his personal record, after signing with the Lakers...a self-professed fitness nut, he claims he actually enjoys his post-season workouts and bicycle rides...figures to be the Lakers' most artistic dunker...claims one of the reasons he wanted to play in Los Angeles was to stay in touch with his support group as part of his after-care from last season's rehabilitation...attends four-five support group meetings each week, sometimes as many as two or three per day...that was one of the reasons he moved into Studio City with his wife, Patricia, and son, Zachary, this past summer.

1987-88 REVIEW

LOS ANGELES LAKERS 1987-88 DIARY

JUNE 14
The Lakers defeat the Boston Celtics at The Forum, 106-93, to claim their fourth NBA title of the '80's and fifth since moving to Los Angeles. EARVIN JOHNSON is a unanimous choice as MVP of the Finals to become the first player to win that award for a third time since its inception in 1969, the fourth to win MVP awards in the regular-season and Championship Series in the same series.

JUNE 16
KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR signs a two-year contract to continue playing with the Lakers, which will extend his NBA career to an unprecedented 20 seasons.

JUNE 22
The Lakers take WILLIE GLASS of St. John's in the third round of the NBA college draft, the club's first selection due to trades. BILLY THOMPSON undergoes arthroscopic surgery on his left knee, injured in the first round of the playoffs.

JULY 28
Ex-Laker RONNIE LESTER joins the club's front office as a scout.

AUGUST 12
Ex-Laker STU LANTZ is named as color-man on Laker broadcasts replacing KEITH ERICKSON, who resigned to enter private business.

AUGUST 16
The Lakers win the Southern California Summer Pro League championship with a 142-135 victory over the Mavericks/Sonics. Led by MILT WAGNER's 43 points, the Lakers overcome a 23-point deficit to claim the title. A.C. GREEN is named the league's Most Valuable Player.

AUGUST 20
JAMES WORTHY signs a multi-year contract extension.

SEPTEMBER 1
The Lakers release an anti-drug rap record and video entitled "Just Say No," with all proceeds going to fund various anti-drug and community service projects under the auspices of the Laker wives' group, Forum Community Service.

OCTOBER 3
All five Laker draft choices and a group of free agents including JEFF LAMP and MILT WAGNER begin the club's five-day rookie camp at Loyola Marymount University.

OCTOBER 5
The Lakers sign veteran ADRIAN BRANCH and sixth-round draft choice FRANK FORD to contracts.

OCTOBER 6
The Lakers sign MIKE SMREK to a multi-year contract.

OCTOBER 7
The Lakers acquire JEFF LAMP as San Antonio relinquishes his rights in exchange for "conditional compensation." The team also signs free agent MILT WAGNER and draft picks WILLIE GLASS, RALPH TALLY, KENNY TRAVIS and RON VANDERSCHAAF.

OCTOBER 9
BYRON SCOTT and WES MATTHEWS sign as the club opens training camp at the College of the Desert in Palm Desert with all players accounted for. MIKE SMREK misses the first workout due to an illness, and BILLY THOMPSON remains sidelined with his injured left knee.

OCTOBER 12
Seventh-round pick RON VANDERSCHAAF is waived.

OCTOBER 16
The Lakers place rookie guards KENNY TRAVIS and FRANK FORD on waivers.

OCTOBER 19

OCTOBER 21
The Lakers trim their roster to 14 by releasing rookies WILLIE GLASS and RALPH TALLY, the club's third- and fourth-round draft picks who were teammates at Atlantic City (N.J.) High School.

OCTOBER 25
Despite a 4-0 start in the pre-season the Lakers get some bad news as EARVIN JOHNSON returns to Los Angeles after playing in two games, to continue treatment for his left Achilles tendinitis.

NOVEMBER 3
The Lakers suffer their first pre-season loss in their last game, the Hall of Fame Game in Springfield, Massachusetts, falling to Chicago, 128-114, without the services of KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR (sinus infection) and EARVIN JOHNSON (left Achilles tendinitis). The Lakers finish the pre-season with the NBA's best record (7-1).

NOVEMBER 4
The Lakers cut their roster to 12 players by placing forward BILLY THOMPSON on the Injured List and trading ADRIAN BRANCH to New Jersey for an undisclosed amount of cash.

NOVEMBER 6
The Lakers receive their Championship rings and banner prior to the season opener against Seattle in the Forum, then rally in the second half for a 113-109 victory in a rematch of the Western Conference Finals.

NOVEMBER 8
A.C. GREEN takes his career-high 18 rebounds, the most by a Laker all season, and EARVIN JOHNSON gets his first of 12 triple-doubles (23 points, 10 rebounds, 12 assists) as the Lakers make it 2-0 with a 101-92 victory over Houston at The Forum. The Lakers out-rebound the Rockets by a 55-36 margin and limit Houston to 37-95 FGs (.389).

NOVEMBER 10
JAMES WORTHY scores 32 points and grabs 10 rebounds as the Lakers win their road opener, 133-124, in San Antonio to improve to 3-0.

NOVEMBER 12
The Lakers defeat the Clippers, 111-82, to improve to 4-0, but JEFF LAMP injures his left shoulder in a collision with Clipper center Benoit Benjamin and is lost for the season.

NOVEMBER 14
The Lakers equal a club record set in 1980-81 by winning their fifth straight game at the start of the season, 118-110, at Golden State, topped by BYRON SCOTT's 27 points.

NOVEMBER 15
Two club records are shattered, as EARVIN JOHNSON's 10 assists enable him to pass JERRY WEST as the Lakers' all-time leader in that category, and the ensuing 147-130 victory over San Antonio gives the team a 6-0 start for the first time. The Lakers also run up their season-high point total.

NOVEMBER 17
The Lakers post a 142-115 victory over Portland to remain the only undefeated team in the NBA as Boston falls from the ranks of the unbeaten with a loss to Cleveland.

NOVEMBER 20
After watching a 27-point lead dwindle down to one, the Lakers hold on for a 119-116 decision over Dallas to improve the best start in Laker history to 8-0.

NOVEMBER 22
Milwaukee ends the Lakers' bid for an unbeaten season with a 124-116 overtime victory in the Forum.

NOVEMBER 24
The Sonics hand the Lakers a second straight loss, 103-85, in Seattle. JAMES WORTHY plays 17 scoreless minutes and is bothered by tendinitis in his left knee. Back in Los Angeles, JEFF LAMP undergoes successful arthroscopic surgery to repair his injured shoulder.

NOVEMBER 30
X-rays on JAMES WORTHY's left knee are negative, and the All-Star forward remains day-tro-day with patellar tendinitis.

DECEMBER 2
JEFF LAMP is placed on the Injured List, then the Lakers' suffer their second defeat at the Forum by dropping a 117-104 decision to Portland.

DECEMBER 4
One of the greatest streaks in sports history comes to an end as KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR is limited to seven points in an 85-83 loss at Milwaukee, snapping his string of consecutive regular-season games scoring in double figures at 787. The Lakers' 83 points represents their low total for the season.

DECEMBER 5
The Lakers suffer a third straight loss for the lone time all season, falling by two points for the second night in a row as Tyrone Corbin tips in a shot at the buzzer for Cleveland's 97-95 decision. It is the first time since January, 1986 that the Lakers drop three consecutive games. JAMES WORTHY sits out for the fourth time with tendinitis of the left knee.

DECEMBER 8
Detroit hands Portland a 127-117 setback, enabling the Lakers to move into undisputed possession of first place in the Pacific Division for the remainder of the season.

DECEMBER 9
The Lakers rally from 13 points down after three quarters to force an overtime in Washington, then succumb, 120-112, for the club's sixth loss in nine games.

DECEMBER 11
Though both clubs enter struggling through uncharacteristic slumps, the Lakers and Celtics stage another of their epic battles at Boston Garden, with EARVIN JOHNSON's running, 20-foot, off-balanced one-hander at the buzzer the difference in a 115-114 Laker victory. The Lakers close a five-game road trip and won't lose again for over a month, as they run off a 15-game winning streak, the longest in the NBA this season and second-longest in club history.

DECEMBER 13
The Lakers sign veteran forward RAY TOLBERT, then struggle to a 90-89 victory over Cleveland as they return to The Forum.

DECEMBER 14
EARVIN JOHNSON is named NBA Player of the Week for the lone time all season. Johnson, who won the honor an unprecedented five times last season, averages 19.2 points, 13.2 assists and 7.5 rebounds and hit the dramatic game winner at Boston to earn the distinction.

DECEMBER 17
The Lakers spoil Ralph Sampson's debut in a Golden State uniform with a 113-106 comeback victory in Oakland. EARVIN JOHNSON scores 31 points and dishes off 17 assists to lead the way.

DECEMBER 26
The Lakers close with a 15-0 run to rally from a seven-point deficit in the last three and a half minutes to post a 117-109 victory over the Jazz in Utah for their eighth win in a row. BYRON SCOTT scores the game's final eight points and finishes with a game-high 26.

DECEMBER 29
BYRON SCOTT scores a career-high 37 points (later topped) on 15 of 21 shooting to lift the Lakers past Philadelphia, 131-115, for the club's ninth consecutive triumph.

JANUARY 3
The Lakers limit the Trail Blazers to an NBA-season-low 28 percent FG shooting (27-95) and roll to their 10th win in a row, 98-81, behind 31 points by BYRON SCOTT in Portland.

JANUARY 8
BYRON SCOTT upstages EARVIN JOHNSON in his Michigan homecoming by pouring in 35 points to lead the Lakers to a 106-104 victory over Detroit for the club's 13th consecutive triumph.

JANUARY 9
The Lakers record a 101-98 triumph in Indiana over the Pacers for their 14th win in a row, tying the second-longest winning streak in club history.

JANUARY 11
BYRON SCOTT is named NBA Player of the Week for the first time in his career after averaging 26 points and shooting 59 percent from the floor in the Lakers' 4-0 week.

JANUARY 12
The Lakers defeat Golden State, 117-113, at The Forum, for their 15th consecutive triumph, the second-longest win streak in club history. BYRON SCOTT once again leads the way with 30 points.

JANUARY 13
The Lakers' 15-game winning streak is snapped at the Sports Arena by the Clippers, 110-109, ending the victors' 11-game losing streak. EARVIN JOHNSON contributes a triple-double (27 points, 11 rebounds, 13 assists) but is not able to overcome the club's 43 percent FG shooting.

JANUARY 16
JAMES WORTHY scores 25 points to lead the Lakers to a 107-96 verdict in Phoenix, earning PAT RILEY a trip to Chicago as coach of the Western Conference All-Stars for the sixth time in seven years.

JANUARY 18
The Lakers jump out to a 41-22 lead after the first quarter, hitting 18 consecutive FGs during the period, and finish with 60 percent shooting in a 121-110 victory over Houston at The Forum. EARVIN JOHNSON gets 39 points, the most by a Laker all season, and 17 assists, thus having a hand in 73 of the club's 121 points. KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR scores 20 points to become the first player in NBA history to pass the 37,000-point mark.

JANUARY 21
EARVIN JOHNSON is voted a starter for the West All-Star team, receiving the second-highest number of votes behind Michael Jordan.

JANUARY 22
KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR puts on a clinic by hitting six consecutive sky-hooks down the stretch to push the Lakers over the New York Knicks, 113-112 at The Forum, in a contest marred by a fourth-quarter brawl which saw Lakers A.C. GREEN and MICHAEL COOPER and New York's Pat Cummings ejected.

JANUARY 23
MICHAEL COOPER receives a one-game suspension from the NBA for his role in the previous evening's fight, and numerous other players are fined. Cooper's suspension unceremoniously ends his consecutive game streak at 556, including playoffs.

JANUARY 24
Despite the unaccustomed absence of MICHAEL COOPER, the Lakers rally behind EARVIN JOHNSON's 34 points to defeat the Sonics in a nationally-televised game, 116-109, ending Seattle's club-record 17-game homecourt winning streak.

JANUARY 29
JAMES WORTHY scores 29 points as the Lakers defeat their first visiting Eastern power, Atlanta, 117-107.

FEBRUARY 2
Despite 39 points by Michael Jordan the Lakers post a 110-101 victory over Chicago for their 13th consecutive win at The Forum, a season high. The Lakers shoot 57 percent FGs while limiting the Bulls to 44 percent shooting.

FEBRUARY 4
The Lakers take a league-leading 35-8 record with them at the All-Star break following a 117-86 win over the Clippers at the Sports Arena. The Lakers grab a season-high 59 rebounds while limiting the Clippers to 33 percent shooting.

FEBRUARY 6
BYRON SCOTT competes in his second Long Distance Shoot-out on All-Star Saturday in Chicago and finishes in third place behind Dale Ellis and champion Larry Bird.

FEBRUARY 7
MVP Michael Jordan scores 40 points to lead the East to a 138-133 triumph over the West in the All-Star game, dropping PAT RILEY's record as All-Star coach to 2-4. KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR passes Oscar Robertson to become the leading scorer in All-Star history, while EARVIN JOHNSON produces 17 points and 19 assists, the second-highest total in All-Star history.

FEBRUARY 9
The Lakers' 13-game homecourt win streak is snapped by Indiana, 110-108, as PAT RILEY misses the game to attend the funeral of his brother, Len, who passed away after a lengthy illness.

FEBRUARY 12
San Antonio records Laker-opponent season highs with 132 points asnd 58 percent FG shooting but the Lakers hang on for a 133-132 triumph in San Antonio, as Alvin Robertson misses a late free throw.

FEBRUARY 14
BRYON SCOTT scores his career-high 38 points, hitting 15-19 FGs, as the Lakers complete a sweep of the Celtics with a 115-106 nationally-televised victory at The Forum. In yet another bizarre rendition of this intense rivalry the Lakers open a 20-point, half-time lead (64-44), yet trail after being out-scored, 36-12, in the third quarter.

FEBRUARY 18
MYCHAL THOMPSON stays at his hotel with the flu and MICHAEL COOPER wishes he had, too, after suffering a sprained left ankle which causes him to miss a total of 20 games, but the Laker starting backcourt out-scores its Houston counterparts, 53-25, en route to a 111-96 victory.

FEBRUARY 19
Playing without MICHAEL COOPER and MYCHAL THOMPSON, the Lakers overcome a 15-point, fourth-quarter deficit to knock off the Hawks in Atlanta, 126-119, in overtime. JAMES WORTHY records a career-high 38 points and EARVIN JOHNSON distributes 19 assists.

FEBRUARY 21
The Lakers beat Detroit, 117-110, at The Forum to sweep another Eastern Conference rival. Isiah Thomas pours in 42 points, the most against the Lakers all season, but the Lakers get a big lift from WES MATTHEWS, who kicks in 14 points in 16 minutes off the bench. Prior to the game the Lakers place MICHAEL COOPER on the Injured List.

FEBRUARY 22
The Lakers activate BILLY THOMPSON, who has not played since he injured his left knee in a playoff game against Denver last April 29.

FEBRUARY 23
Center MIKE SMREK gets 10 points and seven rebounds in his first start of the season in place of the flu-ridden KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR as the Lakers defeat Washington, 111-100, at the Forum. BILLY THOMPSON plays in his first game in 10 months, getting two points in four minutes.

FEBRUARY 28
The Lakers defeat Phoenix, 111-97, at The Forum for their 10th win in a row and finish February with a 12-1 record, the best in club history.

MARCH 1
The host Sonics snap the Lakers' win streak with a 114-100 decision, limiting KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR to two points.

MARCH 2
PAT RILEY is named NBA Coach of the Month for February after he guides the Lakers to a club-record 12-1 month.

MARCH 6
The Lakers record a nationally-televised, 108-97, victory in their first visit to Dallas, halting the Mavs' club-record 11-game winning streak. Once again the Laker guards take charge as BYRON SCOTT scores a game-high 28 points and EARVIN JOHNSON posts a triple-double (14 points, 10 rebounds, 16 assists).

MARCH 9
PAT RILEY becomes the fastest coach in NBA history to reach 400 victories as the Lakers defeat the Knicks at Madison Square Garden, 104-99, in his 540th game as the team's coach. The Lakers hit a season-high 94 percent from the foul line (32-34) to end the Knicks' 13-game homecourt winning streak. WES MATTHEWS sufferes a corneal abrasion when he is poked in the eye in the second half, which sidelines him for one game. After this win the Lakers' record stands at 49-10, and the Lakers lose as many games the rest of the season, finishing 13-10.

MARCH 10
MAGIC JOHNSON re-injures his strained right groin muscle in the first quarter and is forced out for the rest of the game, and 10 of the next 12 contests, as the Bulls run up a 128-107 victory in Chicago. Johnson's injury leaves the Lakers without any of its top three point guards for the final three quarters with both MICHAEL COOPER (sprained ankle) and WES MATTHEWS (corneal abrasion) back in Los Angeles, forcing MILT WAGNER to play a season/career-high 38 minutes.

MARCH 14
MICHAEL COOPER is re-activated prior to a 115-105 victory over New Jersey and plays 27 minutes as the Lakers snap a two-game losing streak. To make room for Cooper, who missed 12 games after spraining his left ankle on Feb. 18 in Houston, the Lakers waive RAY TOLBERT.

MARCH 20
PAT RILEY makes two lineup changes, inserting KURT RAMBIS and MILT WAGNER in the starting unit, and the Lakers record a 130-127 victory over the Warriors in Oakland behind 29 points by BYRON SCOTT and a season-high 28 points (and 10 rebounds) by MYCHAL THOMPSON.

MARCH 22
MICHAEL COOPER is sidelined again due to his sprained left ankle, but EARVIN JOHNSON returns with 10 points and 12 assists in 24 minutes off the bench to spark the Lakers to a 117-95 victory over Houston at The Forum.

MARCH 25
Michael Adams scores his career-high 32 points, including the game-winning jumper at the buzzer, as Denver hands the Lakers their fifth and final homecourt loss, 120-119. EARVIN JOHNSON gets two points, two rebounds and nine assists and is forced to sit down for five more games due to his groin injury.

MARCH 26
With MICHAEL COOPER and EARVIN JOHNSON sidelined once again the Lakers suffer their worst loss of the season, 114-92, in Sacramento, ending the club's 27-game winning streak over the Kings.

MARCH 30
The Lakers sign TONY CAMPBELL to a contract through the remainder of the season, returning BILLY THOMPSON to the Injured List.

APRIL 3
JAMES WORTHY scores 24 points and BYRON SCOTT adds 23 as the Lakers avenge the loss in Sacramento with their 35th consecutive victory over the Kings at The Forum, 108-104.

APRIL 5
MICHAEL COOPER returns after missing 20 games with a sprained ankle as the Lakers defeat Seattle, 94-90, at The Forum in a game in which neither club shoots 40 percent from the floor.

APRIL 8
The Lakers get some good news as EARVIN JOHSNON returns after missing 10 games with a strained groin muscle, getting 16 points and nine assists in 24 minutes in a 126-107 Forum triumph over the Clippers. With the victory the Lakers clinch their seventh consecutive Pacific Division title, the longest streak since the NBA went with a four-division alignment in 1970, and the second-longest in league history. TONY CAMPBELL matches his career high (later topped) with 20 points in an impressive 25-minute outing to share scoring honors with BYRON SCOTT.

APRIL 15
EARVIN JOHNSON gets 15 assists in a 117-114 victory over Phoenix to pass Bob Cousy and move into third place on the NBA's all-time assist list.

APRIL 17
Akeem Olajuwon's 38 points enable the host Rockets to overcome a triple-double by EARVIN JOHNSON (19 points, 10 rebounds and 12 assists) as Houston hands the Lakers its fifth straight road loss, 127-119. It is the club's longest road losing streak since the 1980-81 season, and also marks the Lakers' first loss on national television.

APRIL 19
In their last meeting before the first round of the playoffs the Lakers shoot a season-high .621 FGs (54-87) en route to a 133-126 win in San Antonio, snapping the club's five-game road losing streak. The win clinches the homecourt advantage throughout the playoffs for the Lakers, who get a total of 102 points from JAMES WORTHY (28), KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR (25), BYRON SCOTT (25) and EARVIN JOHNSON (24).

APRIL 20
The Lakers reach a number of milestones in a 114-107 win in Dallas. The win enables the Lakers to become the first team in NBA history to win at least 60 games for four consecutive seasons, and also assures the club of finishing with the best record in the NBA. In addition, EARVIN JOHNSON dishes out 23 assists to tie the club record he shares with JERRY WEST.

APRIL 24
The Lakers close the season with a 136-100 victory over Golden State, the club's biggest margin of victory for the season, and finish with a 62-20 record for the third time in the last four years. TONY CAMPBELL pours in his career-high 28 points to lead the Lakers, but the club hits just 33-48 FTs to miss a club record for FT pct. by .0003. The Lakers set one single-season club record by trying 478 3FGs, and their fans set another by appearing in record numbers (714,477) at The Forum.

APRIL 29
The Lakers begin the defense of their NBA title with a 122-110 victory over San Antonio, as JAMES WORTHY scores a team-leading 22 points, EARVIN JOHNSON hands out a game-high 18 assists, MYCHAL THOMPSON takes a game-high 14 rebounds and the club hits 51-87 FGs (.586).

MAY 1
MYCHAL THOMPSON has another strong outing getting 29 points and 16 rebounds as the Lakers take a 2-0 lead over the Spurs with a 130-112 decision at The Forum.

MAY 3
The Lakers record their fifth consecutive, first-round, 3-0 sweep following a 109-107 triumph in San Antonio.

MAY 8
The Lakers hold Utah to an NBA-playoff-record-low of eight points in the first quarter and open the Western Conference Semifinals with a 110-91 decision over the Jazz.

MAY 10
The Jazz limit the Lakers to 40 percent FG shooting (37-92) and snap the club's 13-game homecourt playoff winning streak with a 101-97 triumph to even the series at a game apiece.

MAY 13
The Jazz use a 96-89 decision to take a 2-1 lead as the series shifts to Salt Lake City. BYRON SCOTT gets 29 points to lead the Lakers, the same number Karl Malone produces for the third game in a row, and the defending champs again shoot an uncharacteristically low FG pct. (.424).

MAY 15
PAT RILEY re-inserts A.C. GREEN in the starting lineup in place of KURT RAMBIS, and the Lakers score a 113-100 triumph, their lone win on the road in the middle two rounds of the playoffs. This time, it is JAMES WORTHY who gets 29 points to lead the team and match Karl Malone, who hits that figure for the fourth game in a row.

MAY 17
MICHAEL COOPER'S lone basket of the evening, a 17-foot jumper with seven seconds remaining, gives the Lakers the lead for good in a 111-109 victory over the Jazz. JAMES WORTHY leads the Lakers with 27 points, while Utah's John Stockton ties EARVIN JOHNSON'S NBA playoff record with 24 assists.

MAY 19
The Jazz jump out to a 31-13 lead after the first quarter and roll up a 108-80 victory, the sixth-worst playoff loss in Laker history. The Lakers shoot a playoff-low .375 FGs (30-80) and are forced into a seventh game for the first time since the 1984 Championship Series.

MAY 21
BYRON SCOTT scores 29 points and EARVIN JOHNSON hands out 16 assists as the Lakers eliminate the Jazz with a 109-98 decision. John Stockton scores his career playoff high 29 points and gets 20 assists, giving him 115 feeds for the series, the most in any series in NBA playoff history. Karl Malone adds 29 points and 15 rebounds, although the Lakers out-board the Jazz, 43-29.

MAY 23
The Lakers open their seventh consecutive appearance in the Western Conference Finals with a 113-98 victory over Dallas, despite a club-tying, playoff-record 20 rebounds by the Mavs' Roy Tarpley.

MAY 25
BYRON SCOTT pours in 30 points, EARVIN JOHNSON hands out 19 assists and the Lakers hit 48-78 FGs (.615) to take a 2-0 lead over Dallas with a 123-101 verdict at The Forum.

MAY 27
The Mavs outscore the Lakers by a 31-18 margin in the fourth quarter and control the boards by a 52-33 margin overall en route to a 106-94 victory as the series shifts to Dallas. Roy Tarpley gets 21 points and 20 rebounds, the first 20-20 game in Mavs' playoff history.

MAY 29
Derek Harper scores his career-playoff-high 35 points as the Mavs even the series at two games apiece with a 118-104 triumph.

MAY 31
JAMES WORTHY scores 28 points and EARVIN JOHNSON hands out 20 assists to offset a 31-point outing by Mark Aguirre as the Lakers take a 3-2 lead with a 119-102 decision over the Mavs at The Forum. The Lakers hit 60 percent of their FGs (51-85) while limiting Dallas to .423 (41-97) accuracy.

JUNE 2
Mark Aguirre scores 23 points and Rolando Blackman adds 22 to counter a pair of 27-point showings by JAMES WORTHY and BYRON SCOTT as the Mavs even the series, 3-3, with a 105-103 victory in Dallas.

JUNE 4
JAMES WORTHY scores a game-high 28 points and the Lakers shoot a club-record .955 from the foul line (21-22), as the defending champions return to the NBA Finals with their second, consecutive seventh-game triumph, 117-102, to eliminate the Mavericks at The Forum.

JUNE 7
The Lakers lose the first game of a series for the first time since the 1985 Championship Series as the Pistons record a 105-93 victory. Adrian Dantley scores 34 points and hits 14-16 FGs to lead Detroit, who hit .575 FGs (42-73) compared to the Lakers' .398 (33-83) showing.

JUNE 9
The Lakers get 26 points by JAMES WORTHY, 24 by BYRON SCOTT and 23 from EARVIN JOHNSON to spark a 108-96 victory that evens the Championship Series at a game apiece.

JUNE 12
The Lakers take a 2-1 lead in the Championship Series and make EARVIN JOHNSON'S return to Michigan a happy one with a 99-86 decision at the Silverdome. JAMES WORTHY leads the Lakers with 24 points, A.C. GREEN adds his career-playoff-high 21 points and Johnson contributes 18 points, 7-8 FGs and 14 assists.

JUNE 14
The Pistons hand the Lakers one of their worst playoff losses ever, 111-86, to knot the series, 2-2. Adrian Dantley leads all scorers with 27 points as the Pistons control the boards by a 48-34 margin and limit the Lakers to .403 FGs (29-72).

JUNE 16
The Pistons out-rebound the Lakers, 53-31, and out-score them, 104-94, to put the Lakers within a game of elimination as the series returns to The Forum.

JUNE 19
KAREEM ABDUL-JABBAR sinks two free throws with 14 seconds remaining as the Lakers record a 103-102 victory to force the series into a seventh game. The Lakers, who will become the first team in NBA history to play three consecutive seven-game series, get 28 points by JAMES WORTHY and 22 points and 19 assists by EARVIN JOHNSON. The star of the game is Detroit's Isiah Thomas, however, as the Piston guard pours in 43 points, including an NBA Championship Series-record 25 in the third quarter. Thomas also suffers a sprained ankle, which will hamper him in the seventh game.

JUNE 21
The Lakers become the first team to repeat as NBA Champions since the '60's with a 108-105 victory over the Pistons. JAMES WORTHY produces a triple-double with 36 points, 16 rebounds and 10 assists and is named MVP of the Championship Series.

WE'RE NO. 1: For the second year in a row the Lakers posted the best record in the NBA last year...the 1986-87 season marked the first time the Lakers finished with the league's best record since 1976-77...three of the Lakers' five titles this decade have come without the benefit of the homecourt advantage throughout the playoffs.

CHAMPIONSHIP PERFORMANCE.

Once again, Toyota is proud to sponsor the World Champion Los Angeles Lakers. Don't miss the Lakers as they shoot for another championship season on the court at the Forum.

And don't miss the championship performance you'll experience with Toyota's exciting new lineup for '89. There's the official car of the Forum, the spirited Celica GT-S, that combines high revving top-end power with excellent handling and maneuverability. And the all-new 4x4 SR5 V6 truck, featuring an aggressive new design and powerful V6 engine that make it the ultimate off-roader.

You'll also appreciate the quality, reliability, and value of the full line of Toyota vehicles. See them perform at your Toyota dealer today.

The Lakers and Toyota—two championship teams!

FOUR FIRSTS ARE A FIRST: The Lakers are the first NBA club to have four players who were selected with the first pick in the college draft...oddly, the Lakers did not use any of their picks to select any of these players, acquiring Mychal Thompson (1978) and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar (1969) after they were already in the league and Earvin Johnson (1979) and James Worthy (1982) using picks acquired from other clubs.

THE FORUM...Home of the Lakers

Ground Breaking:	July 1, 1966	Basketball Capacity:	17,505
First Event:	December 30, 1967	Hockey:	16,005
	Flyers 2, Kings 0	Conventions:	19,385
First Lakers Game:	December 31, 1967	Boxing:	18,780
	Lakers 147, Rockets 118	Concerts:	19,000

This season marks the beginning of the Lakers' third decade in The Forum. The club celebrated its 20th anniversary in its Inglewood home by winning the NBA title on The Forum floor for the second year in a row and the fourth time in club history.

The Lakers' first Forum outing also provided a happy ending, wih the club pinning a 147-118 setback on the San Diego Rockets on December 31, 1967. The Los Angeles Kings formally opened the building one night earlier by hosting the Philadelphia Flyers.

Of course, NBA Championships aren't the only historic sporting events to have graced "The House That Jack Built", since former owner Jack Kent Cooke opened its doors 21 years ago.

On September 10, 1973, the largest live boxing gate ever on the West Coast, $475,640, was recorded when Muhammad Ali defeated Ken Norton via a split decision. The first Forum concert paired Tony Bennett and Duke Ellington in 1968, and countless major acts have followed. The Forum added another distinction in 1984 by serving as the venue for the men's and women's basketball competition during the Olympics.

In 1979, Dr. Jerry Buss purchased The Forum from Cooke in the largest sports transaction in history.

More than 30 million people have entered The Forum to see events like world championship boxing matches, the Harlem Globetrotters, concerts of all shapes and dimensions, track meets, ice shows, the circus, rodeos, the Los Angeles Strings of Team Tennis and other major tennis and volleyball events, the Los Angeles Lazers of the Major Indoor Soccer League and countless other events.

More than 70 percent of the seating at The Forum is located between the baskets or goals, and no seat is more than 170 feet from the playing surface. The finest in dining is provided in the private Forum Club, the public Whistle Stop and at numerous concession stands. In addition, The Forum's innovative Senate Seat program enables patrons to purchase the same choice seats for every Forum event over a 12-month period.

LAKERS YEAR-BY-YEAR

1961 – Lakers first season in Los Angeles after 12 years in Minneapolis. . .Finish in second place in the Western Division behind St. Louis. . .Forward Elgin Baylor winds up as the second leading scorer in the NBA with 2,538 points and a 34.8 ppg. average. . Playoffs: Defeat Detroit (3-2), but lose to St. Louis (3-4).

1962 – WESTERN DIVISION CHAMPIONS. . .Lakers win the West as Jerry West pours in 2,310 points (30.8) and a part-time Elgin Baylor averages 38.3. . .Playoffs: Baylor averages 38.6 points and West 31.5 as the Lakers defeat Detroit (4-2), but lose to Boston (3-4) in the championship series in an overtime seventh game. . .Schaus coached.

1963 – WESTERN DIVISION CHAMPIONS. . .Elgin Baylor again finishes as the second leading scorer in the league with 2,719 points (34.0) as the Lakers roll to their second division title. . .Playoffs: Lakers defeat St. Louis (4-3), but lose to Boston in the finals (2-4). . .Schaus coached.

1964 – West (2,064 pts, 28.7 average) and Baylor (1,983 pts, 25.4 average) finish as the fifth and sixth leading scorers in the league, but Lakers finish in third place behind San Francisco and St. Louis. . .Playoffs: Lose to St. Louis (2-3) in first round. . .Schaus coached.

1965 – WESTERN DIVISION CHAMPIONS. . .West paces the Lakers with 31.0 ppg.–second best in the league. . .Playoffs: Lakers beat Baltimore (4-2) in the division finals despite the absence of the injured Elgin Baylor. . .Lose to Boston (1-4) in the championship. Jerry West has a record-breaking playoff, scoring an incredible 447 points for a 40.6 average in the 11 games played. . .Schaus coached.

1966 – Lakers lead the NBA in scoring, averaging 119.5 ppg. . .West again finishes as the league's second-best scorer, averaging 31.3 ppg. . .Playoffs: Lakers defeat St. Louis (4-3) in the division finals, but lose the championship to Boston (3-4) in a seventh game that Boston wins by two points, 95-93. . .Schaus coached.

1967 – Plagued by injuries that keep West out of the lineup for 15 games and Baylor out for 11, the Lakers slide to third place in the Western Division. Playoffs: West manages to play in only one playoff game and the Lakers bow to San Francisco (0-3) in the opening round. . .Schaus coached.

1968 – WESTERN DIVISION CHAMPIONS. . .Under new coach Butch Van Breda Kolff, Lakers roll to division title despite absence of West for 31 games during regular season. . .Baylor leads the team in scoring (26.0), rebounding (941) and assists(355). . .Playoffs: Lakers sweep by Chicago (4-1) and San Francisco (4-0), but lose to Boston (2-4) in championship.

1969 – WESTERN DIVISON CHAMPIONS. . .Lakers start slowly, but compile nine-game win streak in November that puts them in first place for the rest of the season. . .New Laker Wilt Chamberlain leads league in rebounds (21.1) and field goal percentage (.583). . .Playoffs: Lakers lose first two playoff games but come back to beat San Francisco (4-2), then overwhelm Atlanta (4-1). . .Lose to Boston (3-4) in seven games, the last game a 108-106 heartbreaker in Los Angeles. . .Van Breda Kolff coached.

1970 – WESTERN DIVISION CHAMPIONS. . .Injury jinx again hits Lakers as Wilt Chamberlain tears knee ligaments and is lost to team for regular season. Lakers finish in second place in division. . .Playoffs: Wilt Chamberlain back, Lakers defeat Phoenix (4-3) and Atlanta (4-0), but run out of miracles in the final series against New York, bowing to the Knicks and a hobbling Willis Reed in seven games (3-4). . .Joe Mullaney coached.

1971 – PACIFIC DIVISION CHAMPIONS. . .Lakers finish a strong seven games ahead of San Francisco for the division crown, despite Baylor missing all but two games in the regular season. Scoring slack was taken up by Chamberlain (20.7), Happy Hairston (18.6) and Gail Goodrich (17.5). . .Playoffs: Both Baylor and West are not in uniform, but Lakers still manage to upset Chicago in seven games (4-3) in the opening round. . .Team fails to eventual World Champion Milwaukee Bucks in five games (1-4). . .Mullaney coached.

1972 – WORLD CHAMPIONS. . .Lakers set record as winningest team in the history of the NBA with 69 wins, and also compile a 33-game win streak—the longest streak in all professional sports, as they finish in first place in the Pacific Division by an amazing 18 games. . .Goodrich averages 25.9 points and West hands out a league-leading 747 assists. .Playoffs: Lakers roll over Chicago (4-0) and eliminate Milwaukee (4-2) to win the Western Division. . .Los Angeles spots New York one game lead in the finals, but then rolls to four straight wins to gain the World Championship (4-1). In the final game Wilt Chamberlain hauls down 29 rebounds and scores 24 points as the Lakers win 114-100. . .Bill Sharman is voted Coach-of-the-Year.

1973 – WESTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS. . .Wilt Chamberlain becomes the first player in NBA history to shoot over 70% from the field (.727) and the Lakers have the second best record in the club's history, winning 60 and losing only 22. . Playoffs: Lakers down Chicago (4-3) and Golden State (4-1) to again face New York for the championship. Lakers win the first game, but Knicks' pressure defense causes Los Angeles to average 19 turnovers per game and New York wins the next four and the title (1-4). . . Sharman coached.

1974 – PACIFIC DIVISION CHAMPIONS. . .Lakers stage a tremendous comeback in the last seven games of the season to erase Golden State's three game lead and win the crown. Their accomplishment was even more remarkable considering that they did it without last year's stalwarts, Wilt Chamberlain and Jim McMillan, and with West sidelined for 51 games. . .Playoffs: Lose to Milwaukee in opening round (1-4). . .Sharman coached.

1975 – Jerry West retires. . .Cazzie Russell injures his knee and is out for the balance of the season, and the Lakers miss the NBA playoffs for the first time in 14 seasons. . .High points of the year include Gail Goodrich's 53 points against Kansas City-Omaha and Happy Hairston's 14 rebounds in one quarter against Philadelphia. . .Sharman coached.

1976 – New Laker Kareem Abdul-Jabbar becomes the first Laker in either Minneapolis or Los Angeles to win the League MVP award, the fourth time in his seven-year career that he has received that honor. In one of the most convincing displays of basketball dominance, Abdul-Jabbar leads the league in rebounds, blocked shots, minutes played, is second in scoring, fifth in shooting, and second on the Lakers in steals and assists. However, Lakers are totally unable to win on the road (9-32) and are edged out of the playoffs by losing the last two games of the season at Portland and Phoenix. . .Sharman coached.

1977 – PACIFIC DIVISION CHAMPIONS. . .Former Laker great, Jerry West, returns to the team as head coach, and in his rookie season guides the Lakers to the best record in the NBA—53-29—and the Pacific Division title. . .In the process, Lakers set an NBA record with 37 home wins and a Laker team record with 21 consecutive home victories. . .Center Kareem Abdul-Jabbar wins his second straight NBA Most Valuable Player award, the fifth time in his eight year career that he has earned such honors. Playoffs: Lakers defeat Golden State in seven games (4-3) as Abdul-Jabbar averages 37 points, 18.7 rebounds, and shoots .607 from the field. In the Western Conference finals, Lakers are unable to contain Portland's quick guards and are swept, 0-4.

1978 – Five Laker players suffer broken bones in the first half of the season including center Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, who breaks his hand in the first two minutes of the opening game of the year when he punches Milwaukee center Kent Benson in retaliation for a thrown elbow. . .In addition, forward Kermit Washington is fined $10,000 and suspended 60 days for punching Houston forward Rudy Tomjanovich. . .In the second half of the season with most of the players healthy, Lakers roll to a 28-13 mark, second best in the league. . .Playoffs: Laker guards are pressured into shooting a combined .363 (37-102) from the field as team loses to Seattle, 1-2, in the first round.

1979 – West completes three-year reign as coach with 47-35 record and playoff elimination by Seattle for second straight year. . .Bullets and Sonics are strongest NBA teams, having reached finals two years in a row. Lakers are using small forwards, Jamaal Wilkes and Adrian Dantley. . .In summer prior to 1980 season, Cooke sells his California Sports Inc. empire (Lakers, Kings, Forum and a ranch) to Santa Monica real estate developer Jerry Buss for $67.5 million. . .Buss hires Jack McKinney to be head coach and Paul Westhead from LaSalle as assistant.

1980 – WORLD CHAMPIONS. . .McKinney falls from bicycle Nov. 8 and Westhead takes over, guiding team to Lakers' second NBA championship in their 20 years in LA. . .Abdul-Jabbar is MVP. . .Lakers win final playoff game over 76ers in Philadelphia without injured Kareem, and rookie star Magic Johnson wins playoff MVP award. Westhead is then given a new four-year contract by Buss and McKinney signs to coach Indiana Pacers. . .Pat Riley, lured from broadcasting booth where he was Hearn's color man, is new assistant coach.

1981 – Lakers open season with five consecutive wins, their best start ever in Los Angeles. . .On November 18, Magic Johnson, in a game against Kansas City, suffers a torn cartilage in his left knee and is out for the next 45 games. . .Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, plays brilliantly in his absence, at one point scoring 22 or more points in 33 consecutive games. . .Lakers record a 26-17 mark without Magic. . .Head coach Paul Westhead wins his 100th NBA game, March 17 vs. Dallas, becoming fifth in league history to do so. . .Los Angeles finishes second in the Pacific Division to Phoenix with a 54-28 record. Playoffs: Despite the home-court advantage, Lakers stunned in opening mini-series by Houston 2-1. Rockets advance to NBA Finals, before losing to Boston in six games.

1982 – WORLD CHAMPIONS. . .Lakers got off to a slow start and Paul Westhead is fired on November 19, record is 7-4. . .Pat Riley takes over and the Lakers win 17 of next 20 games and stand 24-7 and open up a five game lead over Seattle in the Pacific Division. . .Mitch Kupchak injures his knee on December 19 and is lost for year. . .Lakers sign free agent Bob McAdoo on December 24 and compensate New Jersey with a draft pick. . .Kurt Rambis emerges as Kupchak's replacement on a January road trip to the midwest. . .Lakers sweep Phoenix and San Antonio 4-0 to reach NBA Finals, becoming first NBA club ever to record back-to-back series sweeps and win first game of NBA Finals vs. Philadelphia to set NBA record for most consecutive playoff wins. . .Lakers win second NBA World Championship in three years with a 114-104 win over 76ers in sixth game. . .Magic Johnson again wins MVP with a steady, 'blue-collar' performance which included 13 points, 13 rebounds and 13 assists in title game. . .

1983 — WESTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS. . .Lakers being the season as the first reigning champion to add the No. 1 pick in the college draft with the selection of James Worthy. . .Golden State spoils the team's Championship ring ceremony on Opening Night with a 132-117 victory, but the Lakers win their next seven games. . .Kareem Abdul-Jabbar passes two milestones, getting his 14,000th rebound and scoring his 29,000th point. . .Magic Johnson leads the league in assists and is named to the All-NBA First Team for the first time. . .Bob McAdoo misses the final 32 regular season games due to an injured toe, and James Worthy is lost for the playoffs when he suffers a broken leg in the final week of the regular-season. . .Lakers defeat the Portland Trail Blazers in five games and the San Antonio Spurs in six before losing to the Philadelphia 76ers in four games in the Championship Series.

1984 — WESTERN CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS. . .Prior to the pre-season opener, Norm Nixon and Eddie Jordan are traded to the San Diego Clippers for Byron Scott and Swen Nater. . .Mitch Kupchak, who sat out 23 months from knee injuries suffered in December, 1981, returns to the club in November. . .Earvin Johnson, off to a record-pace in assists, suffers a dislocated right index finger on Dec. 2 and is lost for a month. . .Magic Johnson sets an All-Star Game record with 22 assists and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar leads the West with 25 points and 13 rebounds. . .Abdul-Jabbar breaks Wilt Chamberlain's all-time NBA FG record in Boston Feb. 8, the team's final victory in a season-long eight-game winning streak. . .Johnson's 23 assists vs. Seattle Feb. 21 tie the club record. . .Jamaal Wilkes comes down with an intestinal infection in February and never regains his usual form. . .Abdul-Jabbar breaks Wilt Chamberlain's all-time NBA scoring record vs. Utah at Las Vegas April 5. . .the Lakers win their third straight Pacific Division title, eliminate Kansas City in three games, Dallas in five and Phoenix in six, before losing to Boston in seven games in the Championship Series. . .Johnson sets an all-time playoff record with 24 assists in Game 2 vs. Phoenix, and his 21 assists in Game 3 vs. Boston are an all-time Championship Series record. . .post-season honors: Abdul-Jabbar and Johnson are first team All-NBA, Michael Cooper is first team All-Defensive with Abdul-Jabbar second team, and Johnson wins the Schick Pivotal Player Award.

1985 — WORLD CHAMPIONS. . .Kareem Abdul-Jabbar announces on December 5 that he will return for an unprecedented 17th season. . .Earvin Johnson receives a record 957,447 votes in the All-Star balloting. . .Jamaal Wilkes suffers torn ligaments in his left knee on February 1 and is lost for the remainder of the season. . .Pat Riley is named Coach of the Month as the Lakers have their winningest March ever (13-1). . .Close the regular season winning 31 of their last 35 games, 17 in a row at home. . .Byron Scott leads the league in three-point FG percentage (.433). . .Lakers win their fourth straight Pacific Division title by a league-record 20 games, and set two other records by shooting .545 FG and recording 2,575 assists. . .Eliminate the Suns in three games and the Blazers and Nuggets in five, before finally defeating the Celtics in a six-game Championship Series, in Boston, after eight previous failures. . .Kareem Abdul-Jabbar wins his second Playoff MVP trophy. . .Earvin Johnson is named to the All-NBA first team and Kareem Abdul-Jabbar is a second-team selection, while Michael Cooper receives first team All-Defensive honors.

1986 — PACIFIC DIVISION CHAMPIONS. . .The Lakers open with four straight wins on the road and get off to the best start in club history, going 11-1, 19-2 and 24-3. . .Kareem Abdul-Jabbar signs a one-year contract extension early in the season to play an unprecedented 18th NBA season in 1986-87. . .Abdul-Jabbar is named Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated. . .Four days after scoring 40 points against New York and Patrick Ewing, Abdul-Jabbar scores 46 points, his highest-scoring game since 1975, in Houston. . .Earvin Johnson becomes the first player to earn more than one million votes in the All-Star balloting and he's joined in the West starting lineup by Abdul-Jabbar and James Worthy. . .Abdul-Jabbar becomes the all-time NBA leader in minutes and games played and reaches the 35,000 point mark on March 30. . .Johnson leads the NBA in assists for the third time in his six-year career. . .Lakers finish 62-20 for the second year in a row, the second-best record in club history. . .Lakers win their fifth straight Pacific Division title by an NBA-record 22-game margin. . .Houston eliminated the Lakers in five games in the Western Conference finals keeping the Lakers from a chance for back-to-back titles as well as a fifth straight appearance in the Championship Series.

1987 — WORLD CHAMPIONS. . .Pat Riley is named NBA Coach of the Month for November after guiding the Lakers to a 12-2 record. . .snap the Celtics' 48-game winning streak at Boston Garden with a 117-110 victory on December 12. . .Earvin Johnson averages 39.3 points and 13.3 assists over a three-game span as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar sits out with an eye inflammation, including his career-high 46 points in an overtime win at Sacramento December 23. . .Abdul-Jabbar makes an unprecedented 16th appearance in the All-Star Game, with Johnson and James Worthy voted as starters and Pat Riley the West coach. . .acquire Mychal Thompson from San Antonio on February 13 for Frank Brickowski, Petur Gudmundsson, two draft choices and cash. . .Chick Hearn broadcasts his 2,000th consecutive game February 28 at Utah. . .finish 65-17, the second-best record in club history, and win the Pacific Division title for the sixth year in a row. . .sweep Denver in three games, eliminate Golden State in five, sweep Seattle in four then defeat Boston, 4-2, to win the club's fourth NBA title of the 80's. . .Johnson is named MVP for both the regular season and the playoffs, while Cooper is named NBA Defensive Player of the Year.

1988 — WORLD CHAMPIONS. . .The Lakers begin the season by winning their first eight games, the best start in club history. . .Earvin Johnson's 10 assists Nov. 15 vs. San Antonio enable him to break Jerry West's all-time club record. . .the club then losses six of its next nine outings, including an 85-83 loss at Milwaukee in which Kareem Abdul-Jabbar's record streak of 787 consecutive regular-season games scoring in double figures is snapped. . .the Lakers close that streak with a dramatic, 115-114 win in Boston on Dec. 11 to start a 15-game winning streak, the second-longest in club history. . .Michael Cooper is suspended for fighting for one game on Jan. 23, bringing his 556 consecutive-game (including playoffs) streak to an end. . .Abdul-Jabbar becomes the all-time leading scorer in All-Star Game history and Earvin Johnson's 19 assists are the second-highest total in the mid-season classic's history, but the East defeats the West, 138-133, to drop Pat Riley's All-Star record to 2-4. . .Lakers' post a 12-1 record in February, the best in club history, as Riley wins Coach of the Month honors. . .with Johnson (groin) and Cooper (ankle) injured, the club endures another stretch of six losses in nine games in March. . .finish 62-20 for the third time in four years to clinch their seventh consecutive Pacific Division title. . .38 of the 41 regular-season home games sell out as the club sets an all-time attendance mark by drawing 714,477, an average of 17,426 per game. . .Byron Scott leads the club in scoring (21.7), while Johnson earns All-NBA First Team honors and Cooper is again selected to the All-Defensive Team. . .eliminate San Antonio in three games for their fifth first-round sweep in a row, then become the first club to win three consecutive seven-game series to capture the NBA title and become the first club to repeat as champions since Boston in 1968-69. . .James Worthy is named MVP of the Championship Series.

Centinela Hospital Medical Center
The Official Hospital of the Los Angeles Lakers

When the Lakers sought to protect the health and enhance the fitness of its players, the obvious choice for Lakers officials was to name Centinela Hospital Medical Center as the "Official Hospital of the Lakers."

Centinela Hospital has earned an international reputation in the fields of sports medicine, orthopedic surgery and sports medicine research. It remains a favorite choice of professional and recreational athletes and is renowned for its innovative and revolutionary techniques in treatment, surgery and rehabilitation.

Numerous professional athletic organizations on a national and local level have chosen Centinela Hospital as their choice for top-notch healthcare including the Lakers, Kings, Lazers, Dodgers, Rams, Angels, the PGA TOUR, Senior PGA TOUR, the LPGA, Hollywood Park and the Lewitzky Dance Company. In addition, CHMC was chosen as an "Official Hospital of the 1984 Olympic Games," and has been designated by the State Department as its treatment center whenever the President or other major dignitaries are in the Los Angeles area.

The Centinela Hospital team for the Lakers is headed by two internationally recognized orthopedists, Dr. Robert K. Kerlan and Dr. Stephan J. Lombardo of the Kerlan-Jobe Orthopaedic Clinic, as well as a specialist in internal medicine, Dr. Michael Mellman. These physicians attend all Laker games and check each player at halftime and after each game. They also consult with the players regarding their physical problems and their personal fitness programs between games and during the off-season.

Centinela Hospital is a complex organization involving a number of entities, many dedicated to the advancement of sports medicine. CHMC's Biomechanics Laboratory, the Kerlan-Jobe Orthopaedic Clinic and the Centinela National Athletic Health Institute (CNAHI) have all been instrumental in sports medicine research that will ultimately prolong the careers of the athletes through fitness training and injury prevention.

Prior to the start of each season Lakers players have their annual fitness evaluation at the Centinela National Athletic Health Institute, an organization that stands in the forefront of treatment and research into the care and prevention of sports related injuries. It's newly expanded and refurbished facilities in Fox Hills offer the state-of-the-art in health enhancement and fitness improvement.

The Institute has developed a sophisticated battery of tests to evaluate the health and fitness of professional athletes, recreational athletes, business executives, policemen and firemen, in addition to tests for nonathletic individuals. They use these tests results to assess an individual's baseline fitness level in terms of strength, endurance and flexibility and to prescribe a specific exercise program designed to enable that individual to attain and maintain peak physical condition. Lakers coaches and exercise physiologists use these individual exercise prescriptions to help each team member achieve his best potential.

Perhaps no program better demonstrates Centinela Hospital's leadership role in sports medicine than the pioneering research done in its Biomechanics Laboratory. Here, researchers use advanced technology and engineering to study the body mechanics of athletes. The staff has developed scientific methods to meet a number of different goals, including: to help athletes improve their performance; to analyze playing techniques; to reduce sports injuries; to evaluate the effectiveness of sports and exercise equipment; and to improve rehabilitation programs.

The hospital's relationship with the Lakers has proven to be a winning one for the team. Increased fitness, improved performance and injury prevention have been the results. That is why Centinela Hospital is the "Choice of Champions."
